Joycee-ettes meet

The Mount Joy Joycee-ettes held their monthly meeting May 16 at the Boro Hall.

New members, Liz Baley and Joyce Hamilton attended. Guest at the meeting was Laurie Dick.

Co-Chairmen LaVon Harnish and Jacquie McCurdy reported the babysitting directories will soon be printed and distributed and will include the names of 43 girls.

Plans are still underway for the 75-plus banquet to be held at Hostetter's, June 8. Memorial Day activities include a chicken bar-b-que sale and bake sale.

The Joycee-ettes plan to end their year with a covered dish meeting to be held at the home of LaVon Harnish.

Obituaries

Twenty-year-old Charles E. Myers, Sr., Mount Joy, R.D. 3, died Saturday night as a result of injuries he suffered while riding his motorcycle earlier in the evening along Pinkerton Road south of Mount Joy.

Myers, born in Fort Knox, Ky., was the son of Charles L. and Mary Knable Myers, Jr., who live in Rheems. Myers was employed by ITT Grinnell Corp., Columbia.

EARL G. MUMMA

Earl G. "Cappy" Mumma, 85, of 13 S. Market Street, Mount Joy, died at his home Monday after an extended illness.

He lived in Mount Joy all his life. He retired from farming ten years ago. He was a member of Ruhl's United Methodist Church.

Born in Newton, he was a son of the late Jacob D. and Effie Haverstick Mumma, and the husband of Minerva Hauenstein Mumma.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by: a son Herbert W., of Banner, Miss.; a stepdaughter Carcena Light, New Cumberland; two grandchildren; three step-grandchildren; and nine great-great-grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, Myers is survived by his wife, Fay Kaufman Myers; a son, Charles E. Myers, Jr.; two sisters, Cathy A., wife of Dwight D. Leabhart, Elizabethtown, and Miss Janet E. Myers, Rheems; a paternal grandmother, Mrs. Rita E. Myers, Elizabethtown, and a maternal grandmother, Mrs. Milla Knable, Mount Union.

CATHERINE M. SHANK

Mrs. Catherine M. Shank of York and formerly of Marietta and Florida, died at age 87 at Heatherbank Health Care Center, Columbia.

She was the widow of Henry J. Shank, who died in 1955. She was formerly employed at Wyeth Laboratories, and was a matron at Masonic Homes in Elizabethtown before moving to Florida 23 years ago. She moved to York three years ago to live with her daughter.

She was born in Weston, the daughter of the late Peter and Theresa Roinick.

She is survived by one daughter, Marie, the wife of Richard E. Hecht, with whom she lived; one grandson; three great-grandsons; a sister, Marion Otto, of Miami, Florida; and a brother, William L. Roinick of Virginia.
