Page 12 — SUSQUEHANNA TIMES

John Hiestand honored by Bankers' Association

*Modern, 2 bedroom garden apartment

Springfield Garden

Apartments

- * Wall to wall carpet.
- * All conveniences

* ^s230 plus electric

Security and references. Applications being taken

Mount Joy Phone 653-2600

John S. Hiestand, of Maytown, was honored for fifty years in Banking at the annual Pennsylvania Bankers Association Convention held at the Washinton Hilton, Washington D.C., May 28-31.

Mr. Hiestand is chairman and a member of the Board of Directors of the Regional Board of Farmers First Bank, Marietta Branch. He started his banking career in 1927 as a teller at the Maytown National Bank. In 1950 he was named a Director of the Board; five years later the bank merged with Farmers First, Lititz, and he was named Vice-president and Manager of the Marietta Office and a member of the Regional Board of Directors. He was named chairman of the Regional Board last year.

Mr. Hiestand is a past President of the Lancaster County Bankers Association, Pastor Emeritus of the Congregational Bible Church, and is chairman of

ESTHER U. HORN

Mrs. Esther U. Horn, 77,

of Dunns Eddy Rd., RD1

Youngsville, PA, and formerly of Marietta, died at

Warren General Hospital at 11:00 AM on Saturday,

She was born on September 12th, 1900, in Annville,

a daughter of the late

William L. and Ellen

Wilhelm Ulrich. She graduated from Annville High

School in 1919, and from

Millersville State College in 1921. She was married to

Harvey U.E. Horn at

Annville on January 23,

1926. They lived in

Marietta before moving to Youngsville in 1944, when

Mr. Horn accepted a

May 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiestand

the East Donegal Township Municipal Water Authority and a part time salesman for Hiestand Memorials Inc., Marietta.

Mrs. Hiestand accompanied her husband to the convention as did Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hiestand, Maytown.

Obituaries

MICHAEL B. RIEHL

Michael B. Riehl, 21 -month-old son of Audrey Witman Riehl, East Petersburg, and Dennis E. Riehl, Mount Joy, died unexpectedly on Wednesday at 11:35 AM at St. Joseph Hospital.

An autopsy was ordered by the office of the Lancaster County coroner.

The boy lived with his mother at 5432 Main St. in East Petersburg.

Surviving, besides his parents, are maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Witman, Manheim RD6, and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin V. Riehl, also Manheim RD6.

RAYMOND S. RUBY

Raymond S. "Dice" Ruby, Jr., 60, died Friday at his home at 19 S. Vine St., Marietta.

He was the husband of Phyllis J. Barshinger Ruby and the son of Raymond S. and Laura May Haines Ruby Sr. of Marietta.

Born in and a lifetime resident of Marietta, he was a member of the United Methodist Church of Marietta and a member of Mount Joy American Legion Post 185.

A veteran of World War II, he retired in May from the New Cumberland Army Depot where he was a wharehouseman.

In addition to his wife

Mom, Use This Handy Checklist For Father's Day... Lawn Mowers Carpenter Tools □ Bicycles Mechanics Tools Hose Nozzles □ Electric Shears Pressure Washer □ Tool Chests □ Hedge Clippers Pruners Chain Saws Roto Tillers Grass Shears Gas Cans Garden Hose Garden Rake Caps Pad Locks Shovels Covered Grills □ Motor Oil Hoes . Work Shoes □ Work Gloves □ Sprinklers Weed Eaters □ Lanterns Hammers Lawn Furniture Batteries 122 dese Throw Willing Hostetter Hardmare, Inc. 93 E. Main St., Mount Joy Phone 653-1861

June 7, 1978

Stork is Pushing Lou Ann

Lou Ann Hess Brodhecker happily announces that she will be on a motherhood leave of absence beginning June 6 from her beauty salon at 38 W. Market Street, Marietta

Lou Ann warmly suggests that her many friends and patrons will be very pleased with the continuing service that will be offered in her shop by Goldie Hooper Dorwart Goldie is a resident of Columbia and a highly qualified beautician.

Featuring Hair Styling For the Entire Family

HOURS: TUES. & WED. 9 - 5, THURS. & FRI. 9 - 7, SAT. 8 - 1

position as music instructor with the Youngsville schools.

Mrs. Horn taught English at Youngsville High School and was a librarian for three years. She was also a substitute teacher.

She was a member of the Saron Lutheran Church, Youngsville, and the Brokenstraw Garden Club and Grange, and the Pittsfield Home Extension.

Surviving are: her husband Harvey; a daughter, Mrs. Ronald Wood of Frederica, Del.; a son, William Horn, Conestoga; five great-grandchildren; a brother, W. Luther Ulrich, RD1 Columbia; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Sprecher, Cleona; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by two sisters, Mrs. Josephine Kreider and Mrs. Violet Berger.

A funeral service was held May 30th in Youngsville. She was buried in Wednesday morning at his tery, Annville, on May 31st. Friends wishing to place memorials may do so through the Warren County Heart Fund.

BENJAMIN MYERS

Benjamin F. Myers, Jr., 68, of Bainbridge died Wednesday morning at his home.

He was the husband of Laura M. Myers. Myers was born in Conoy Township and was the son of the late Martha Smith and Benjamin F. Myers Sr.

He had lived in Bainbridge all of his life. He was an inspector at Olmstead Air Force Base in Middletown for 22 years before retiring.

Myers was a member of St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Bainbridge, Odd Fellows Triune Lodge of Middletown, Bainbridge Fire Co., a former member and tounder of Bainbridge Water Authority, a social member of Libhart-Dyer Post 197 of the American Legion and a former member of Bainbridge-Maytown Rotary Club.

Surviving in addition to his wife are: two daughters; Lucille, wife of Leslie Dorenus, Pennsylvania Furnace, and Susan M. Myers, Mount Joy; a son, Alfred K. Myers, at home; and two grandchildren.

and parents, he is survived by one daughter, Joyce H. Ruby of Manheim, three brothers; John F., Harold T., and Vincent Ruby, all of Marietta R.D.1.

MRS.C.S. GREIDER

Viola L. Greider, 75, of Mount Joy R.D.1, died at St. Joseph Hospital at 9:00 PM Saturday evening.

A resident of the Mount Joy area for the past 50 years, she was a member of the Mount Joy Mennonite Church, and active as a Grey Lady at St.Joseph Hospital for over 25 years.

She was a member of the Lancaster County Farm Women Society Number 8.

She was the widow of Clarence Greider, who died in 1974.

She was born in East Lampeter Township, a daughter of the late John B. and Ada Leaman Kreider.

She is survived by a son, Jay Clarence Greider, with whom she resided; three grandchildren; two brothers Walter Kreider, Ronks, and Daniel Kreider, Lancaster; and a sister, Miriam, wife of Frank Steller, Leola.