Smedley to be officer

Richard Smedley

Richard Smedley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smedley of North Gay Street in Marietta, will soon enter the U.S. Air Force's Officer Training School (OTS).

"I felt I was qualified to be an Air Force Officer, so I applied," says Richard, who has been working in the Air Force's research program dealing with birds that hit airplanes.

He has enjoyed his work with the Bird Aircraft

Strike Hazard (BASH) program, but, he continues "I think a person needs to strive to do better. You can't sit back and be complacent simply because you have a job you enjoy. You've got to move ahead."

When he graduates from OTS, Richard will be commissioned a 2nd lieutenant. As such, he will have a chance to use the training he got at Albright College in biology, chemistry, and math, to a larger extent than he has up till now. If he gets back into BASH, he will continue his bird studies, but in a more responsible position.

Smedley was chosen "Airman of the Quarter" for part of 1977, and was the honor graduate in basic training. Off-duty, he is a member of the base soccer and softball teams, likes to golf, and plays tennis. He enjoys crossword puzzles.

He is married and has one daughter.

His wife, Carol, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greider, Mount Joy RD #1.
