

DHS graduation

The Donegal High School graduation ceremonies went smoothly despite the threat of rain. Hundreds of parents and friends turned out to see the graduating seniors presented.

Awards were given out to students who distinguished themselves in various fields. Karen Albright won no less than 7 awards. As Mr. West presented her with one after another, the crowd began to laugh and applaud.

Karen won these awards: Mount Joy Jaycee Valedictorian award; Charles J. Bennett College Preparatory award; English Award; Bausch & Lomb Science award; Donegal Mutual Insurance Co. Math Award;

Sue Meszaros, left, and Stacy Miller, right, each won $250 in scholarships from the Donegal Coaches Association and was recognized by the American Association of Physics Teachers and as a National Merit Scholarship finalist.

The salutatorian award went to Denise Grimm, who also won a $500 scholarship from the Farm and Home Foundation.

The Business Ed award went to Carol Nolt, as did the attendance award.

John Wagner won the Vo-Tech Valedictorian award. Mark Divet got the salutatorian award.

The Mount Joy Lions award went to Kathi Shelly. Armstrong Lab awarded Bruce Eyer a savings bond. The Mount Joy B.P.W. gave a $500 scholarship to Holly Spence.

Eric Steinhart won the Robert B. Hoffman Engineer Award, Joe Coover the John Philip Sousa award for music, Margaret Endslo the Marietta Community Chorus award.

A $100 Charles W. Heaps art scholarship went to Becky Ruhl. The Clerical award from Farmers First Bank was given to Donna Kreider. Ricky Gordner won the New Holland Community Service Award, a $50 savings bond.

The Mount Joy Joyceettes gave $300 to Lori Gebhart. Joi Shearer got the DHS Dramatics Club patriotism award. Miriam Ginder received the Marietta Lions Club Service Award, and also the Zi Alpha Iota award.

Eileen Penyak was given the Americanism Award. Scott Boylan received the John A. Haines Memorial Scholarship of $100. Todd Garber got $50 from the PA Motor Truck Association for safe driving.

Dawn Shireman and Melvin Hay shared the American Youth Foundation Citizenship Award. Jolene Lindemuth and Todd Garber shared the V.F.W. Citizenship Award.

P.U.F.A. gave Allison Hawthorne and Jim Johnson $50 savings bonds for arts participation.

Pam Kolp and Scott Mowrer won the Joyceettes' athletic awards.

Anthony Branch, Carolyn Davis, and John Jenkins got the Urban League Youth Awards.

Miriam Ginder, Tammy Duke, and Jim Johnson shared the Donegal Booster Club's School Spirit Awards.

Each of these girls won a $500 scholarship from the Donegal Education Association. Left to right they are Lori Gebhart, Kathi Shelly, and Sue Meszaros.

DHS multiple award winners. In front, left to right, are Carol Nolt, Denise Grimm, Miriam Ginder, and Tammy Duke; in back are Todd Garber, Karen Albright, and Jim Johnson.

DHS award winners. Front row, left to right, are Holly Spence, Becky Ruhl, Allison Hawthorne, and Joi Shearer. In Back are Jolene Lindemuth, Joe Coover, John Wagner, Bruce Eyer, and Donna Lee Kreider.

DONEGAL INDUSTRIES, INC. IS EXPANDING ITS PRODUCTION OF CHILDREN'S SLEEPWEAR

NOW HIRING

- ★ All daytime work - 7 AM to 2:30 PM
- ★ Opportunity for continuous daily overtime if desired.
- ★ Five day work week.

COME IN TO SEE US:

- ★ Let us explain our wage scale and benefit program.
- ★ You will have opportunity to see our modern facilities and to inspect our product lines.

Interviewing: 8 AM to 4:30 PM

Mount Joy, PA

Near Donegal High School

Children, Youth, and Adults in Marietta Come Find God's Secret! at VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

featuring Singing, Bible Study, Discussion, Crafts and Recreation at the Congregational Bible Church and Riverview Elementary School (children up to 2nd grade)

JUNE 19 - 30 MON—FRI 7:00 - 9:00PM

Special Feature This Year! ADULTS ONLY

A special class on 'Family Living' with Rev. John Hiestand

Mon.'s & Wed.'s only in Riverview Auditorium