

All 4 vote against property tax

A grand total of four people voted in last week's Susquehanna Poll on the question: Do you think property taxes should be reduced or eliminated? All four voted "yes," one person specifying that he or she wanted property taxes "reduced."

"Learn to keep house. Quit spending unnecessarily;" "Taxes of salaries appear much fairer—taxes on property can really hit the pocketbook of the young and elderly;" "Stop a lot of this waste at these schools, and there is plenty of it. Taxes are too high."

Marietta auxillary gives $900 to hospital

Members of the Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital presented a $900 check to John Metzler, Columbia Hospital administrator, at the end of Monday's meeting at the hospital. This check leaves only another $1000 left in the Auxiliary's pledge to the building fund. The money came from public card parties, white elephant sales, food tasting events, and individual projects of the members.

Auxiliary members had a luncheon meeting at the hospital for the June session. President Mrs. Joe Gilmartin conducted the meeting and appointed a nominating committee of Mrs. Robert Henry, Miss Ruth Wisman, and Mrs. Thomas Moran. The meeting was opened by the chaplain, Mrs. William Heisey, who read addages. The next meeting will be in September.
