Carver kids get together

Children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carver, S. New Haven St., Marietta, held their biggest family reunion since 1949 at the Millersville home of the eldest daughter, Mrs. Paul Lenhard.

Joyce Loewen and her husband, Fred, traveled all the way from Alamagordo,

New Mexico. Joyce's son Jessie and his wife, Gloria, brought their daughter, Michelle. Alice Davis came from South Carolina. Francis Larson, and her husband, Robert, brought their children, Lynne and Robert, from Arlington, Va.

Rev. Earl Carver came with his wife, Helen. Their son, Earl C., Jr., brought his friend Bala Bansal. James came with his wife Becky, and their children; Jarrett, Danielle and James. Sonja brought her husband, Joe, and children; Bret and Blis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weaver were also on hand.

Murphys celebrate 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Murphy, Rheems, were the honored guests at a drop-in party celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday.

The couple were married at the Lutheran Church Parsonage, Elizabethtown, June 16, 1928 with the late Rev. Frank Croman officiating.

Ed is a native of the Elizabethtown area and his wife, Emma, was born in New Germantown, Perry County. They have seven children, 26 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Daughters: Jean (Mrs. Albert Sardino), Hershey; Patsy (Mrs. Donald Eichler, Jr.), Mount Joy; Jacqueline (Mrs. Lavern Mumma), Greenville, South Carolina.

Sons: Harold, Rheems; Stanley, Camp Hill; Jere and Keith of Elizabethtown. Ed retired from Bethlehem Steel after 31 years with the firm.

Both are members of the Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, Mount Joy. The guests were asked not to purchase gifts, but instead, contribute to a fund for purchase of articles for Glossbrenner Church.

P.O. safe driver awards

Marietta Postmaster Merv Gutshall recently presented five employees of that post office with Safe Driver awards. Receiving these National Safety Council awards were rural carriers Albert J. Dettinger (32 years) and Donald B. Drager (7 years), and city carriers Benjamin F. Billett (19 years), Ben Thompson (8 years), and William Fahringer (5 years).
