House of the Month

Mrs. Cohen (left) gets the plaque from Mrs. Cresswell (right). The house is in the background.

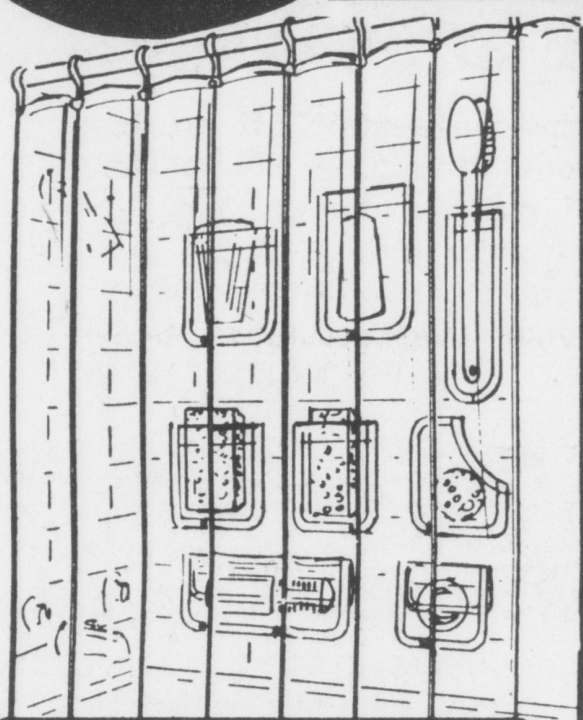

The home and antique shop of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Cohen at Front and New Haven Streets in Marietta received the House of the Month award from the Marietta Restoration Associates. The award is given for restoration, preservation, and renovation. Mrs. Robert Cresswell presented this month's framed certificate.

The Cohen's house was built between 1800 and 1811 by Joseph Bucher. It was an apartment house when the Cohens bought it in 1971.

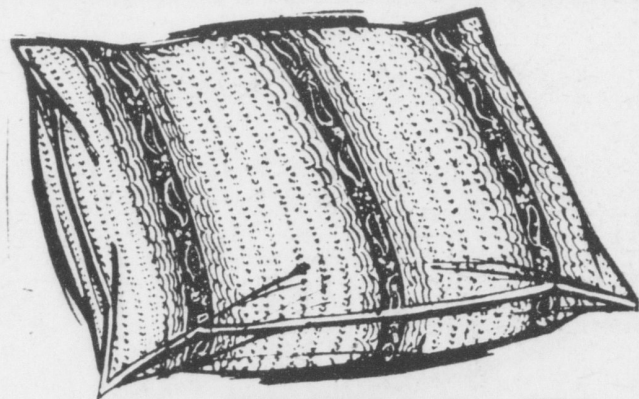

Mrs. Cohen supervised the structure's restoration, a project which took over a year to complete. The building is generally known as "the Oliver house."
