adequate temporary safety measure.

Insurance

Dr. Hartzler questioned the recommendation of the superintendent's office that district student insurance be bought from the Reserve Life Insurance Co. of Dallas, Texas. (The local agent of RLI is B. Titus Rutt). Dr. Hartzler recalled having heard that Hempfield High's rates were much lower than those quoted in the recommendation.

He was assured that the rates were higher at Donegal because Donegal gets more coverage than Hempfield or a similar reason, and that RLI Co. is not more expensive than the others. Dr. Hartzler agreed to the recommendation on condition that an investigation of the situation be conducted before the contract is awarded again next year.

Personnel changes

The board hired Mr. Joseph C. Zimmerman of Myerstown as a full-time substitute for 1978-79 as elementary school principal during the first semester (replacing Mr. Sites) and as junior high principal during the second semester (replacing Mr. Bollenbacher). Mr. Zimmerman holds Master's degrees in art and education. He is married and has two children. He will be paid $15,850 for 11 months' work.

Also hired on recommendation by the superintendent was Mrs. Diane Ceresini of Lebanon as a full-time substitute elementary librarian at Riverview and Maytown.

Letters of resignation from these teachers were accepted: Mr. Scott Penwell, high school English; Mrs. Mary Holtzman, elementary teacher; and Mrs. Elizabeth Narkiewicz, high school home economics teacher.

New gym roof

Mr. McCloskey, of Buchart Associates, is preparing bid specifications for re-roofing the high school gym. They recommend an estimate of $20,000.

The junior high heating system work was inspected and found satisfactory.

French

The high school has French textbooks, tapes, etc., available to any interested person. French is less popular than it was. The district is finding it hard to sell the material.

Midgets

Rick Breault asked for permission to use the high school baseball field for Midget-Midget games. Permission was granted.

Mrs. Judy Swab, a citizen who attends board meetings regularly, commended Mr. Thome, the soccer coach, for the great job he is doing. Mr. Arnold voiced the board's agreement with her.
