Farm Women No. 8 meet

by Pauline E. Miller
Farm Women's Society #8 met at the Stonebridge Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Brubaker, July 15 at 6 PM. Members, husbands and guests enjoyed a full course picnic meal, provided by the Brubakers. Twenty-three members and thirty or more visitors and husbands attended.

A brief meeting was held by members which was called to order by Kathryn Heisey, the Society president. Minutes of the June meeting were read by Secretary Mary Grace Martin.

Those who helped at the food stand for the sale at Anna Chapman's July 15 were: Agnes Houseal, Hettie Ginder, Margaret Heisey, Vera Frey, Evelyn Russell and Anna Keener.

The Farm Women's Picnic will be held August 2 at Lancaster County Park, in Pavilion No. 3 at noon. Members are asked to bring one dish of food and their own place setting.

A county-wide Homemakers Camp is being held August 15 to 17 at Camp Swatara, near Bethel.

Containers to be filled for sale at the LARC bazaar will be given members at the September meeting.

Every one thoroughly enjoyed the delicious food served outdoors amidst the lovely surroundings of the Brubaker home. The remaining time was spent in touring the butcher shop and watching Mr. Brubaker cut up the half of a steer. He with his wife gave many pointers on the selection of cuts of meat for use in certain ways to realize delicious results. The demonstration was quite educational.

Society #8 will have no meeting in August.

The next meeting will be held September 16 at 2 PM at the home of Kathryn Erb, 255 Marietta Avenue, Mount Joy. The speaker will be Mrs. Walter Bachman.

Sewing at the General Hospital will be Thursday, October 5, 1978.

DID YOU HEAR?
August is Sandwich Month. Also, next week is International Humor Exchange Week. Ha Ha!
