Mount Joy Fire Co. Aux. plans picnic

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Mount Joy Fire Company held their monthly meeting on July 20.

Their annual picnic will be held during their next meeting on the night of August 17, at 6:00 PM at Sico Park. Anybody wishing to come out and join the fun, please call 653-5682 or 653-5435 for more information.

A bazaar and Oldie but Goodie Sale will be held on Thursday and Friday, September 28 and 29: time, 12:00-9:00, at the fire house. Proceeds will be used to furnish the kitchen in our new fire house.

The ladies are now taking orders for china plates with a picture of the Mount Joy fire house, 1893-1979 with Friendship Fire Co. No. 1 and Ladies' Auxiliary. On the back will be the names of the officers of the fire company and auxiliary.

Anyone wishing to order one of these plates may call 653-5682 or 653-5435.

Proceeds will go toward the new kitchen.

Scouts honor Charles, Johnson

J. Edward Charles, president of the Donegal Mutual Insurance Co., and Jack Johnson, Columbia realtor, were honored recently by Richard Collister, the Western District chairman of the Boys Scouts, Lancaster-Lebanon Council.

The two were given patron membership plaques by Collister for their work in the annual district sustaining membership enrollment campaign. They led the district with patron memberships, helping to break enrollment records in the Western District.

The more than $11,000 dollars raised this year will help to provide a good scouting program here.

Sunday a la carte

by Chester Wittell

On this fair Sunday in the month of June
When citizens go forth in crowds to dine,
I hie me to the restaurant at noon,
Hang up my hat and coat and stand in line.
An interval of waiting intervenes,
And when I've had about enough of it
A hostess, young and radiant in her "teens,"
Comes forth to greet and tell me where to sit.
I give the girl my order; look around
And gaze in wonder at the curious scene,
Where scads of femininity abound,
Clad stylishly in yellow, blue, and green;
And pondering while o'er the menu looking,
I see why home has given up home cooking.
