

Obituaries

MRS. PAUL JOHNSON

Mrs. Roberta McComsey Johnson, a clerk-typist at Flexsteel Industries, died Monday at 11 AM at Kent General Hospital, Dover, Del., after an illness of four months. Mrs. Johnson was 28. She lived at 532 Martin Ave., Mount Joy. She was the wife of Paul H. Johnson.

A member of Grace Evangelical Congregational Church, Lancaster, Mrs. Johnson was a 1967 graduate of Hempfield High School and a 1969 graduate of Brandywine Junior College.

She was born in Lancaster, a daughter of G. Carl and Jane Little McComsey, Quarryville R2.

Besides her husband and parents, she is survived by a brother, Sanders C. McComsey, Pequea R1; paternal grandmother, Wynona Weidman, and maternal grandmother, Ruth J. Little, both of Lancaster.

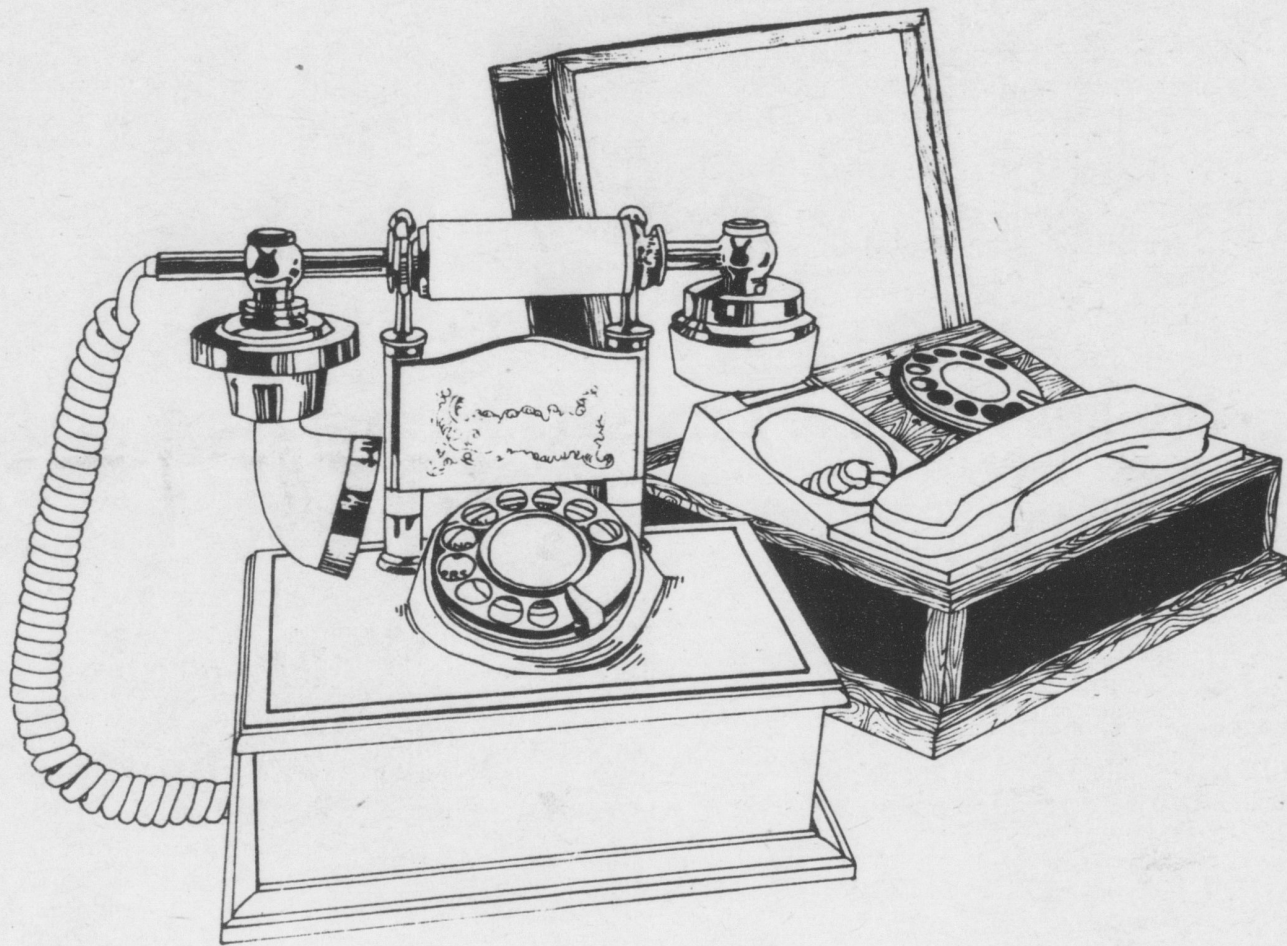

MRS. M. McNERNEY

Mrs. Bernetta B. McNerney, 70, formerly of Rising Sun, Md., died on Wednesday at Lancashire Hall, Neffsville, after a lengthy illness.

She was a member of St. Agnes Parish, Rising Sun, Md., and had been an active member of Altar Rosary Society.

She was born in Marietta, the daughter of the late David L. and Anna Boll Burkholder and the wife of the late Michael J. McNerney.

Surviving are three children, Michael J., and Eileen, wife of William F. Steele, both of Lancaster, and Maureen, wife of Michael L. Donahue, Hampton, Va.; three grandchildren; two sisters, Catherine Burkholder, Lancaster, and Anna Schlegelmilch, Niagara Falls, N.Y.

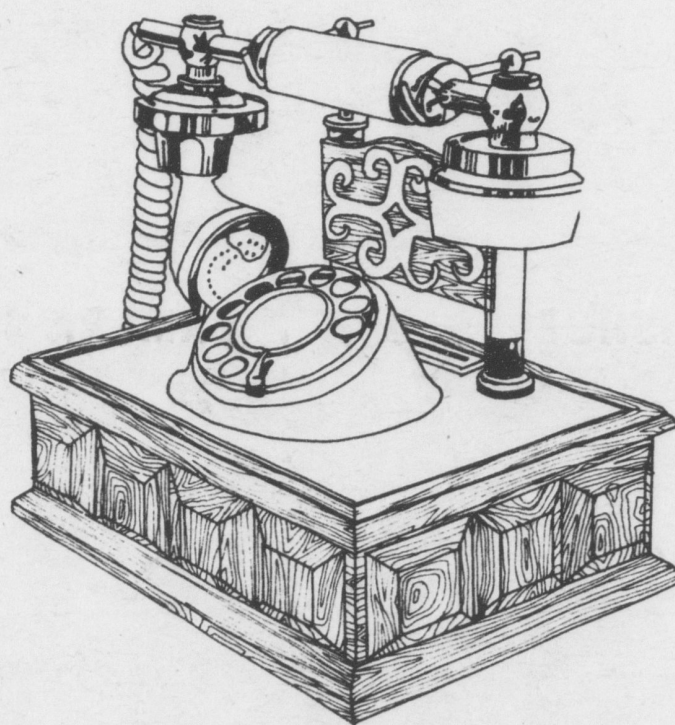

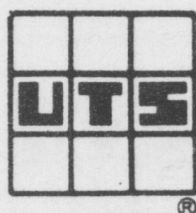

These new decorator telephones will lend a classic touch to your living room, bedroom or den. Why these telephones even make a call to the plumber an exhilarating experience.

You can choose from our stylish antique, Mediterranean and Early American cradlephones, or put the phone completely out of sight in a distinctive chestphone.

Simply call your local United Telephone Business Office today for complete information about the exciting decorator telephones.

THE UNITED TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

United Telephone System

Masterpiece

Marietta ambulance memberships available

Memberships in the Marietta Area Ambulance may be purchased in Farmers First Bank on Friday, August 11, from 5:00 to 8:00 PM. Ambulance personnel will be there.