

These new decorator telephones will lend a classic touch to your living room, bedroom or den. Why these telephones even make a call to the plumber an exhilarating experience.

You can choose from our stylish antique, Mediterranean and Early American cradlephones, or put the phone completely out of sight in a distinctive chestphone.

Simply call your local United Telephone Business Office today for complete information about the exciting decorator telephones.

THE UNITED TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

United Telephone System

Masterpiece

Obituaries

ALBERT M. HOBBS

Albert M. Hobbs, 93, of 320 Marietta Ave., Mount Joy, formerly of Waynesboro, Franklin County, died Thursday at 9:50 PM at St. Joseph Hospital where he had been a patient for the past two weeks.

He was the husband of the late Estella Greenawalt Hobbs. He had made his home in South Euclid, Ohio, and Mount Joy, for the past five years.

Before his retirement in 1955, Hobbs had been employed at Landis Tool Co., Waynesboro, for 50 years. He was a former member of Waynesboro Lions Club and Waynesboro Country Club.

Hobbs was a member of St. Andrew's Catholic Church, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Lodge 731, Knights of Columbus and Landis Tool Co. foremen's club, all of Waynesboro.

Born in Waynesboro, he was a son of the late Charles J. and Magdelene Holtz Hobbs.

He is survived by a son, James Albert Hobbs, South Euclid, and Helen Hardish, Mount Joy; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

EDNA JOHNSON

Mrs. Edna (Harris) Johnson, 71, of 262 Fairview Ave., Marietta, died unexpectedly at her residence Tuesday after a period of ill health.

She was found Thursday by relatives who had come to visit. Her death was ruled death by natural causes by Deputy County Coroner Dr. Barry Walp. Mrs. Johnson had a heart condition.

Born in York County, the daughter of the late William C. and Ruth Davis Harris, she was a lifelong resident of Marietta.

Employed as a cook for many years, Mrs. Johnson last worked for the fraternity houses at Franklin and Marshall College.

She was a member of the Bethel AME Church in Marietta for 50 years, serving as the church organist and pianist for the last 20 years. She was also a member of the Ladies Missionary Society of the church.

Mrs. Johnson is survived by several cousins, nieces and nephews.