Yolks get scrambled at Egg Ranch bash

The Plain and Fancy Egg Ranch, RD3 E-town, held their annual company picnic recently and served—not hamburgers or hot dogs, which you might think would be a change for the employees—but barbecued chicken and red beet eggs.

Not content with eating eggs, the employees then named their baseball teams for the day the "whites" and the "yolks." The whites, led by vice president Paul Hess, Jr., scrambled the yolks 13-6.

The picnic was held in Lititz Springs Park. Door prizes were won by Elsie Stoltzfus, Donald High, Norman Drescher, and Doug Sheriff.

F. Barry Shaw elected to bank board

Mr. F. Barry Shaw, Elizabethtown, has been elected to both the Elizabethtown Area Branch Board and the Harrisburg Region Board of Commonwealth National Bank.

President of Wengers Feed Mill, Inc., since 1973, Shaw joined the firm in 1967 and served as its secretary from 1968 to 1973. Prior to his association with Wengers, he held a management post with Sun Oil Co., Marcus Hook, Pa.

A 1960 graduate of Gettysburg (Pa.) College, Shaw has completed graduate work in business finance at University of Delaware, Newark, Delaware.

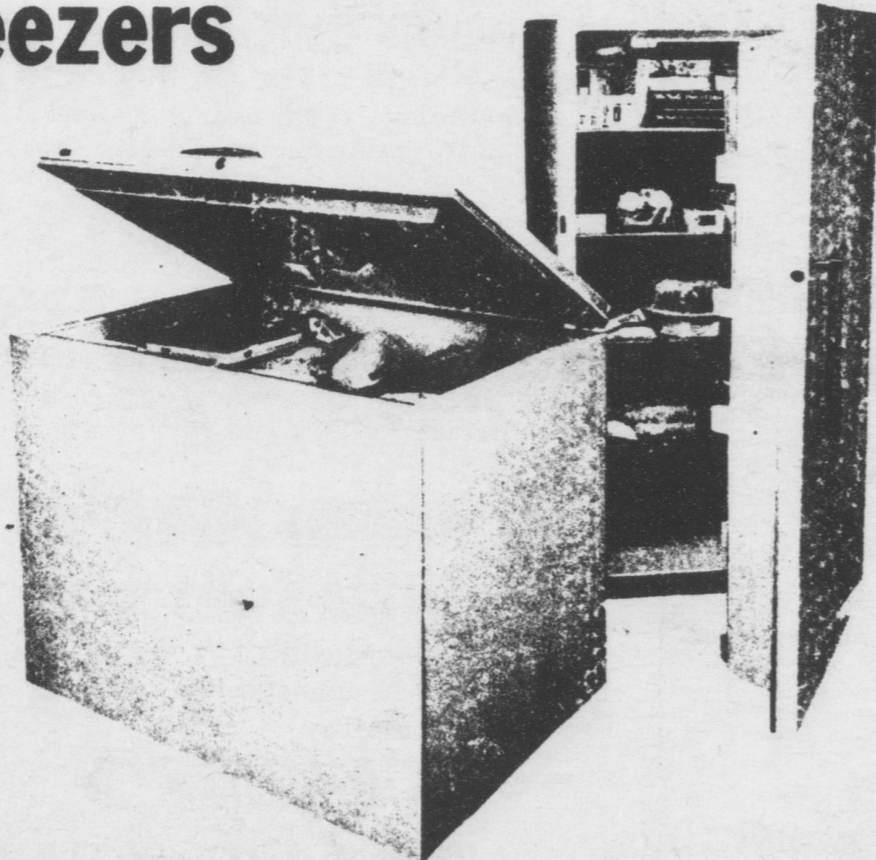

A member of the Church of the Brethren, Shaw is president of the Elizabethtown Lions Club for 1978-79. He is on the board of directors of: Elizabethtown Blood Bank; Elizabethtown Vocational Technical School; Misty Acres, Inc.; Dutchland Farms, Inc.; Eggs, Inc.; and Phi Gamma Delta.
