

Lescallette is new pastor at St. John's Lutheran

Rev. Robert Lescallette

St. John's Lutheran Church in Maytown has a new pastor: Rev. Robert M. Lescallette.

Rev. Lescallette will be ordained at a special service in Lebanon on August 13, and he will conduct his first communion service on August 20.

Rev. Lescallette is a graduate of Central Dauphin East High School and Dickinson College, where he studied political science and German. He spent his junior year at the Johns Hopkins Institute for International studies in Bologna, Italy.

After graduating from college in 1970, Rev. Lescallette joined the Air Force and was stationed at Andrews Air Base in Washington, DC. He later attended Gettysburg Seminary for two years, and spent a third year as assistant pastor at Salem Lutheran Church in Lebanon. He received his Master's of Divinity degree this year.

He will be ordained by Rev. Ronald E. Pierson, the former pastor of St. John's, and Dr. Howard McCaerney, president of the Central Pennsylvania Synod.

Church field trip

The Mennonite Historical Associates are planning a field trip on Sept. 16 in commemoration of the 200th anniversary of the Brethren in Christ Church.

Among the sites which will be visited on the tour are: the home and gravesite of Ulrich Engle, father of Jacob Engle, who founded the church; the later home and burial site of Jacob Engle; the early Engle log house with movable doors and closets where services were held in the days before meeting-houses; the traditional First Brethren in Christ baptismal site; the site where the first historic excommunication meeting was held with Matthias Brinser, founder of United Zion's Children; Brinser's home and burial place; Kraybill Mennonite School; Conoy Indiantown; Peter's Road; Donegal Presbyterian Church and Witness Tree; and the Haldeman Mansion.

A family-style meal will be served at the Rheems Fire Company Headquarters.

Cost for the tour is $8.00 for each MHA member and $9.00 for non-members. Buses will leave Lancaster Mennonite High School promptly at 12 noon for this trip, guided by Elmer F. Kennel, Martin E. Ressler, and Simon P. Kraybill.
