Grows tomatoes on balcony

Mrs. Lottie Kuzemka, who recently moved to this area from Scranton, proves that it is possible to grow tomatoes on an apartment balcony. Mrs. Kuzemka shares an apartment with her daughter, Dorothy Wasko, in the Village of Rivermoor, Marietta.

Mrs. Kuzemka has put her tomatoes in flower boxes filled with geraniums and without any special care the tomatoes and geraniums are doing beautifully! Mrs. Kuzemka also tends to many flowering hanging baskets which brighten the balcony.

Attention parents

St. Joseph Hospital and the Health Care Center are offering a new service for parents who are vacationing, or out of town for some other reason.

Parents can get pre-authorization of medical services forms from the Dept. of Ambulatory Services, 291-8285. In case the child is involved in an emergency, the hospital will attempt to contact the parents. If they cannot be reached, the pre-registration form will authorize the hospital to proceed with emergency treatment which the parents have specified on the form.
