PUFA enters 2d year

After a very successful season, PUFA (People United For the Arts) is ready to begin a second year supporting the arts and encouraging the students at Donegal in the various arts departments.

At a recent special meeting at the home of the president, Betty Hershey, discussion was held concerning the plan of action for the fall term. A membership drive is being planned for September with Beverly Johnson as chairman.

All people interested in supporting the arts are asked to contact Mrs. Johnson at 546 Terrace Ave., Mount Joy (Phone: 653-2363) for a membership application.

Coming up on the school calendar will be the senior class play "MAME" under the direction of Glenn Hess on October 27th and 28th.

The annual Veterans' Day program will be held on November 11th in the DHS Auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Mary-Margaret Peraro. This program is open to the public free of charge.

The next regular meeting of PUFA will be held Tuesday, September 12th at 8:30 PM. A special program is being planned under the direction of Mrs. Peraro. They will be presenting a comedy in one act entitled, "Why I Am A Bachelor." Cast members include: James Landis, Patrick Kenney, Bonnie Wolgemuth, Wayne Mylin, Deb Torres, Georgiann Westerman and Julie End-slow.

This is open to the public and no admission will be charged. A short business meeting will follow the program.

Mrs. Kent Moore

Jodie Lynn Sargen marries Kent Keith Moore

The marriage of Miss Jodie Lynn Sargen and Kent Keith Moore was solemnized on Saturday, August 26, at 6:30 PM in the Lancaster Grace Brethren Church. The Rev. E. Keith Moore and the Rev. Wesley Haller were the officiating ministers at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleon L. Sargen, 1 Bell Drive, West Chester who gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length qiana gown with embroidered alecon lace. Her elbow length mantilla of chiffon was trimmed with reembroidered clecon lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses, baby breath and a touch of red sweetheart roses.

Miss Judy Sargen was maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Kay Strander, Manheim, sister of the groom, Jan Maogian, Boston, Donna Williams, Lancaster, Mary Ellen Ortman, Lancaster and Kris Halloday, Indiana, sister of the groom.

Kevin Moore, Meadville, brother of the groom was best man, and ushers were Troy Strander, Manheim, brother-in-law of the groom, Harry Wait, Wisconsin, Timothy Weber, Lancaster, Jeffrey Sargen, Lancaster, brother of the bride and Steven Halloday, Indiana, brother-in-law of the groom.

Mrs. Donald Siglin, Millersville, was organist and accompanied the soloist Mrs. Paul Mumma, Ephrata. The reception was held at the Indian Springs Golf Club, Landisville, and the couple will reside in Mountville after a wedding trip.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of Hempfield High School and graduated from Grace College, Winona Lake Indiana in 1977 with a B S degree in Health and Phys Ed. She is employed with Watt and Shand, Park City.

The groom graduated from Sunshine Bible Academy in 1972 and the Word of Life Institute, Schroon Lake, N.Y. in 1974 and is employed with Way Messenger Services, Lancaster.

The Sargen's were former residents of Marietta and Hempfield area.

Correction

Last week's article about the Donegal School Board incorrectly stated that exchange student Lucia Gomez will live with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shearer. It should have read, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stoner.

Yellow journals?

A plant called kenaf, which is used for rope in the Third World, can be used to make newsprint also, according to scientists who say its only drawback over regular newsprint is its slightly yellowish hue.
