Kanoff and Splain are youngest EMT's on the crew

Bill Kanoff, 17, and Frank Splain, Jr., 16, recently became the newest—and the youngest—EMT's on the Maytown Ambulance crew.

The two both recently completed the 120-hour Emergency Medical Technician course offered by the Red Cross. They now have the highest non-professional certification that the state awards.

Both young men have been on the ambulance crew for about a year. Both have gone along on some 60 calls apiece.

The Maytown Ambulance now has six EMT's. But, says Bill, they can always use more. The next meeting of the ambulance association will be on September 14th, at 7:00 PM. Anyone who wants to join is invited to attend the meeting.

Jack Doutrich of the Maytown Ambulance says, "We're proud of the fact that we now have six EMT's. We're looking forward to getting some more."
