Television Awareness Workshop

scheduled by Interchurch Council

Submitted by Rev. Clair Wagner

for both good and bad by what people watch on television. The workshop will provide an overview of television and violence, stereotyping, advertising values, and news, with a major emphasis on sex-oriented shows in light of Christian ethics.

The workshop is for older children, youth, and adults. Child care will be available. A free-will offering will cover the cost of the workshop.

The Mount Joy Interchurch Council invites you to share in this workshop to help you become more aware of the role television plays in our lives.

A Television Awareness Training (TAT) workshop will be held in the Fellowship Hall of Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, at Church and Angle Streets, Mount Joy, on Sunday, September 24, at 2:00 PM. Sponsored by the Mount Joy Interchurch Council, the workshop is presented by a representative of TELERAD, the interdenominational television and radio commission of the churches of south-central Pennsylvania.

The TAT workshop assumes that our values are being shaped and molded
