Joycee-ettes plan another active year

After enjoying a delicious meal at the Horse Inn in Lancaster, the Mount Joy Joycee-ettes got down to hard work and began planning their year ahead. Looking back on old business, the summer social was enjoyed by all who attended despite the rain.

Co-chairman Bev Swanson reported that plans were being finalized for the fashion show that was held September 30 at Hostetter's.

The Jaycees are planning a joint meeting with Welcome Wagon in October with a guest speaker. Also scheduled for October is a bus trip to the Reading outlets.

The Joycee-ettes will be making and taking orders for baler twine wreaths to be distributed before Christmas. Co-chairman for this project are Bev Swanson and Jo Ann Frymoyer.

Two big projects being planned now the Santa Breakfast, held in December, and Creative Craft Day, to be held in March. More details will be furnished later.

Because of the resignation of Sandy Meckley, past president, her office will now be filled by Cheryl Hallgren.

Guests for the September dinner meeting were Jeanne McKain and Sandy Spayd.
