

The Elizabethtown Merchants Association

is celebrating the coming of fall with its annual

Golden Harvest Promotion

this week end. The group plans to give away

turkeys

one in each of its participating businesses.

Registration is free and no purchase is necessary.

Stores will be offering early fall specials and the event

usually proves to be worthwhile for the retailers and an opportunity for the shopper to realise savings on seasonable merchandise.

3. Our Town - April 4

Total cost $10. Money must be in by October 9.

Adult members wishing to attend performances as a group with the students, may purchase tickets for these 3 for $14. Money to be given to Betty Hershey, 653-1723, Beverly Johnson, 653-2363, or Nancy Kopf, 653-2233. Money to be in by October 9. Checks may be payable to PUFA.

Proposed agenda of Mount Joy Council meeting

The proposed agenda for the Mount Joy Borough Council meeting to be held on Monday, October 9, 1978, at 7:30 P.M., in the Borough Offices Building, 21 East Main Street, Mount Joy, is as follows:

1. Consider the adoption of Ordinance No. 398 amending and updating the traffic ordinance.
2. Receive the third quarter financial report.
3. Discuss and consider approving the improvements to the Borough Park.
4. Receive a report on the Birchland Avenue storm water problem.

Well Child Clinic

Well child clinic sponsored by the State Health Center, Lancaster will be held Tuesday October 12th. Clinic hours are 9:00 to 11:30 a.m. at the Community Building, 258 W. Market St., Marietta. Immunizations, special testing, physical examinations and parent counseling are available to children seen at the clinic.

Parents are requested to bring any children who have never been seen at the clinic on Tuesday or to schedule an appointment by calling the Community Building 426-3106 during clinic hours.

The public health nurses also invite all community persons interested in having their blood pressure checked to come between 11:00 and 12 noon on the same days.

Correction

An ad in last weeks issue stated family memberships for the 1978-79 Marietta Area Ambulance Association was $5.00. It should have been $6.00 for a family membership including college students.

Tammy skating again

Skating competition is back and so are the Flowers sisters.

Tammy Flowers, seven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Flowers of Marietta, received first place in Primary Figures on Sunday, September 24th at Hagy's Fountainblu Arena. Tammy also skated Elementary Beginner Figures and took third place.

Candy is skating a new division this year. She is skateing Juvenile Figures, which she took third place.

Candy and her dance partner, Randy Cramer, took first place in Juvenile Dance. They also skated Elementary Beginner Dance and took first place.

Candy skated Pick-A-Partner, which she skated with Mr. Jack Miller from York, Pa. They took second place.

Obituaries

Roger Jay Ginder, 16, of Mount Joy R2, died September 26 at St. Joseph Hospital from complications of injuries sustained in a school bus-car crash September 15 on rain-slick Route 230.

Ginder's sister, Judy, 14, one of two passengers in the car, was admitted to Hershey Medical Center with multiple injuries. She is still a patient there, listed in satisfactory condition.

Born in Lancaster, Ginder was the son of James W. and Marlene Gruber Ginder. He was a lifelong resident of the Mount Joy R2 area. He attended West Green Tree Church of the Brethren, Mount Joy R2.

Ginder, a junior at Donegal High School, was employed part-time on a farm owned by a neighbor, Arlin Balmer.

Surviving in addition to his parents and sister, Judy Ann Ginder, are two brothers, Randy Joe and Ricky James Ginder, all at home; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gruber, Mount Joy R3, and paternal grandfather, Victor Ginder, Mount Joy R2, at home.

Thomas B. Grosh Jr., 63, of 28-38 35th St., Long Island City, N.Y., formerly of Marietta, was killed in an automobile accident September 24 at Routes 82 and 340 in Valley Township, Chester County.

He was the husband of Eleanor Wangerin Grosh.

A school teacher, Grosh taught in the Branford, Conn. school system.

He served as a first lieutenant in the Army Air Corps during World War II. Grosh was a graduate of the former Marietta High School and Millersville State College.

Born in Marietta, he was a son of the late Thomas B. and Bessie M. Hipple Grosh Sr.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons and a daughter: Dr. Thomas B. Grosh III, Marietta; Dr. William W. Grosh, Park Falls, Wis., and Susan E. Grosh, at home; three grandchildren, and two sisters, Jane, wife of Clair Amway, Mount Joy, and Bessie Mae Grosh, Marietta.
