BPW celebrates Business Women Week

[Reprinted from the BPW newsletter]

As its kickoff for National Business Women's Week, Mount Joy BPW met at the Lincoln Restaurant Sunday morning for breakfast. Twenty women attended the breakfast buffet and enjoyed the delicious breakfast, the talk by the Rev. Geneva Lasley, and good friendly fellowship.

Following the breakfast hour, the group attended Trinity Lutheran Church for the morning worship. The group's presence was recognized by the Pastor, David Klepper, and all wore the yellow button identifying them and declaring this week as BPW National Business Women's Week. We hope each of you will wear your BPW button for the remainder of this week as a token of pride in what has been achieved by women for women in the business and working world and for encouragement in future accomplishment. Thanks to Ada Thompson and her committee for the excellent arrangements.

The October meeting of the Mount Joy BPW will take place on October 25th. Mr. Edward Book, chairman of the board of Hershey Estates, will be presented by the legislative committee, chaired by Betty Groff.

The Brass Instrumentalists from Donegal High School will play.
