Obituaries

LESTER J. KUHN

Lester J. Kuhn, 62, of Campti, La., and formerly of Mount Joy, died Tuesday in Panama City, Fla., while visiting his son, William.

Kuhn graduated from Mount Joy High School in 1943. He lived in Mount Joy until 1941.

He served in the army during World War Two as an ordinance officer in the South Pacific, the Philippines, and Guam. He held the rank of captain.

He moved to Campti in 1945. There he operated a general store and the post office. He retired five years ago.

He was the mayor of Campti from 1970 to 1974 and was the local HUD representative.

He was a member of the Campti United Methodist Church and the Campti Fire Department.

He was born in East Donegal Township, a son of the late Harry R. and Annie M. Trout Kuhn.

Surviving him are his wife, the former Fleecy Fouts; a son, William, of Panama City, Fla.; a daughter, Alice Ann, wife of Joe Scott of Marshall, Texas; three sisters, Bertha Foreman of Mount Joy; Ruth, wife of Elwood Martin, Mount Joy; and Evelyn, wife of Elwood Garber of Marietta. Also surviving are two brothers: Walter Kuhn of Manheim and Russell Kuhn of Mount Joy.
