

ABOVE: Scriptwriter Sharon Cox and moderator Jim Landis are ready for the production—RIGHT: that's really Kirk Billet, not Abe Lincoln.

Big, free Vet's Day show at DHS

An original play, Fate's Threshold, by DHS senior Sharon Cox, will be the highlight of the ninth annual Veterans' Day Tribute at the Donegal High auditorium on Saturday, November 11.

The free performance, which begins at 7:30 p.m., combines the talents of over 200 students in the band, chorus, and drama club in an evening of patriotic music and drama.

Moderator for the program is Drama Club president James Landis. Music will be performed by the band and chorus, and an original guitar number, entitled "Ode to a Hero," will be performed by the composer, Kimberly Boyer.

An honor trio (Floyd Runkle, Bruce Wagner and Wayne Mylin) will sing the traditional "God Bless America," and the ever-popular Rhythm Singers will perform.

The delivery of the Gettysburg Address will be re-enacted by Kirk Billet, depicting Abraham Lincoln.

Hockey team holds pizza party

The end of the party

The Donegal Hockey Team ended its 1978 season with an informal pizza party at the Maytown Fire Hall on Thursday, November 2, 1978. Each class of hockey players and the coaches presented skits as part of the evening's entertainment.

The freshman players enacted a Howard Cosell interview the "Donegal Freshbodies" of the team. Many amusing and comical comments resulted. The sophomores staged their hockey version of the popular quiz show, The Price Is Right, during which unusual items pertaining to the senior players were up for bid. Each senior was "lucky" enough to guess the correct price and was given the item as a gag gift. The juniors recited an original and meaningful poem on hockey. Highlight of the juniors' presentation was a special song composed and sung in Spanish by Lucia

Gomez, the team's score-keeper. (Lucia is our exchange student from Columbia, South America. She is staying with hockey player Barb Stoner's family.) The words to her song are:

[continued on page 3]

Letters

The orange tree

Orange tree

Dear Sirs:

Several weeks ago we saw a picture of an orange tree you had in your paper. I'm enclosing a picture of mine. At the present time we have over 20 that are orange in color but not quite ready to eat, which I do. They are a little sour but I eat them all. Some green ones and loads of blossoms at the present time. The biggest ones are about 5" in circumference. I've had the orange tree since 1973. It was bought for me by my oldest son.

I have lived in the Marietta area most of my life till 1976.

Catherine Rice
RD#1 Box 34
Blain, Pa. 17006

Likes the Times

Dear Sirs:

I enjoy your paper... I lived in Marietta 1904 to 1943. Sure is good to get news about people and places around there. My husband, Earle Filby, passed away in Texas, at age 72, in 1964. He is buried in Marietta: so will I be, some day. I am 80 years now.

Best wishes to your paper.

Estelle C. Filby
Rolling Hills, Apt. 154
Pottstown, PA 19464

BPW Candlelight Tour

Coming up soon—on November 19, a week from next Sunday—is the Mount Joy BPW's Candlelight Tour of interesting homes and buildings in the Mount Joy area. This year, the Business and Professional Women have lined up ten fine places for you to visit.

These places are on the tour:

The Schock Presbyterian Home
St. Mark's United Methodist Church Sanctuary and Parsonage
Groff's Farm
Studio of Dance and Gymnastics
Mount Joy Area Historical Society Building
Home of Mrs. and Mrs.

Lawrence Shumaker Apartment of Mrs. Christine Brown
Walnut Tree Farm, Home of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Weidman home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stohler

Tickets for the tour can be obtained from any BPW member or at any location. The cost is only $2.50. A brochure is included in the price.

Proceeds of the Candlelight Tour will go to the many BPW projects, such as the dental clinic, the library, Christmas lighting, the Friendship Fire Co., and others.

Look for more details in next week's Susquehanna Times.

Visit the teachers

Next week is National Education Week, and Donegal District schools will hold parent-teacher conferences or open houses so that parents can meet their kids' teachers.

Donegal High will hold its open house on Monday, November 13th, between 7:00 and 9:00.

Room visitation will be from 7:00 to 8:15, at which time a movie, "A Day in the Life of Bonnie Consollo," will be shown. The film centers on Bonnie, a handicapped person.

The movie lasts 15 minutes. Between 8:30 and 9:00, a social hour will be held in the cafeteria. School Board members and refreshments will be available.

The Mount Joy Rotary Club will attend the events at DHS, and hold their meeting there.

There will be a display by the Mount Joy Vo-Tech, and teachers will show some of the things they

[continued on page 11]