Joycee-ettes see film

The Mount Joy Joycee-ettes held their monthly meeting October 17th at St. Mark's church.

After President Kathy Bower called the meeting to order, the club welcomed Sandy Spayd as a new member.

Co-chairman Bev Swanson reported that the Fashion Show Luncheon was a big success and was enjoyed by all who attended.

Other projects now under way include the making of Baler twine wreaths, making baby bonnets, Santa Breakfast, and the Creative Craft Day-Bazaar.

With all these projects in the making, the Joycee-ettes have managed to find some time for fun and socializing. A bus trip to the Reading outlets is planned for October and Joanne Nolt has planned a craft night for making macrame door hangings.

Following the Joycee-ette business meeting, the Welcome Wagon was invited to watch a film shown by Dr. Kipp from Norlanco Health Center on jogging. After the film and a short discussion from Dr. Kipp, who is an avid jogger, a question and answer session was held.

Both clubs then socialized and shared some of their ideas with each other.
