Roach passes surveyor's examination

Charles L. Roach has successfully completed the Surveyor's Examination administered by the Pennsylvania State Registration Board for Professional Surveyors.

Roach took the examination last June at Penn State.

Mr. Roach is employed by D.C. Gohn Associates, Inc., surveyors and engineers, 240 West Main Street Mount Joy, as an Enginearing Technician. He joined the company in 1975 with previous experience as a draftsman and computer technician.

After serving in the U.S. Navy, he received an associate degree in engineering from Penn State. He has also completed courses in surveying at Harrisburg Area Community College.

Charles, his wife, and three children reside at RD1 Conestoga.

Obituaries

MRS. CHESTER YORDY

Mrs. Goldie Mae Yordy, 58, of Bainbridge, died Sunday at her home, after a protracted illness. She was the wife of Chester D. Yordy.

Born in Shamokin, she was the daughter of the late George and Nadine Tyson Snyder. She was a resident of the area for most of her life.

Mrs. Yordy was a member of the Word of Life Chapel in Bainbridge RD1. She was several times the president of the Maytown American Legion Auxiliary, and held several chair-womanships in that unit.

She was also president of the Lancaster County Council of the American Legion Auxiliary, and served as rehabilitation chairwoman. Being director of the Council, she served as liason between the Department and Lancaster County units.

She served two terms as chapeau of Salon 354, Eight and Forty.

She was a volunteer at the Coatesville Veterans' Hospital for 15 years.

Surviving her, in addition to her husband, are: two daughters and a son; Mrs.

Shirley Miller, Myerstown RD1; Judy, wife of Michael E. Drace, Maytown; and Chester D. Yordy, Jr., Wrightsville.

Also surviving are: 15 grandchildren, and three sisters and a brother—Vivian Ruby, Lancaster; Jackie, wife of Thomas Wheary, Paradise; Jean, wife of Joseph Wysock, Lancaster; and Daniel G. Snyder, Media.

MRS. ALBERT GREENLEY

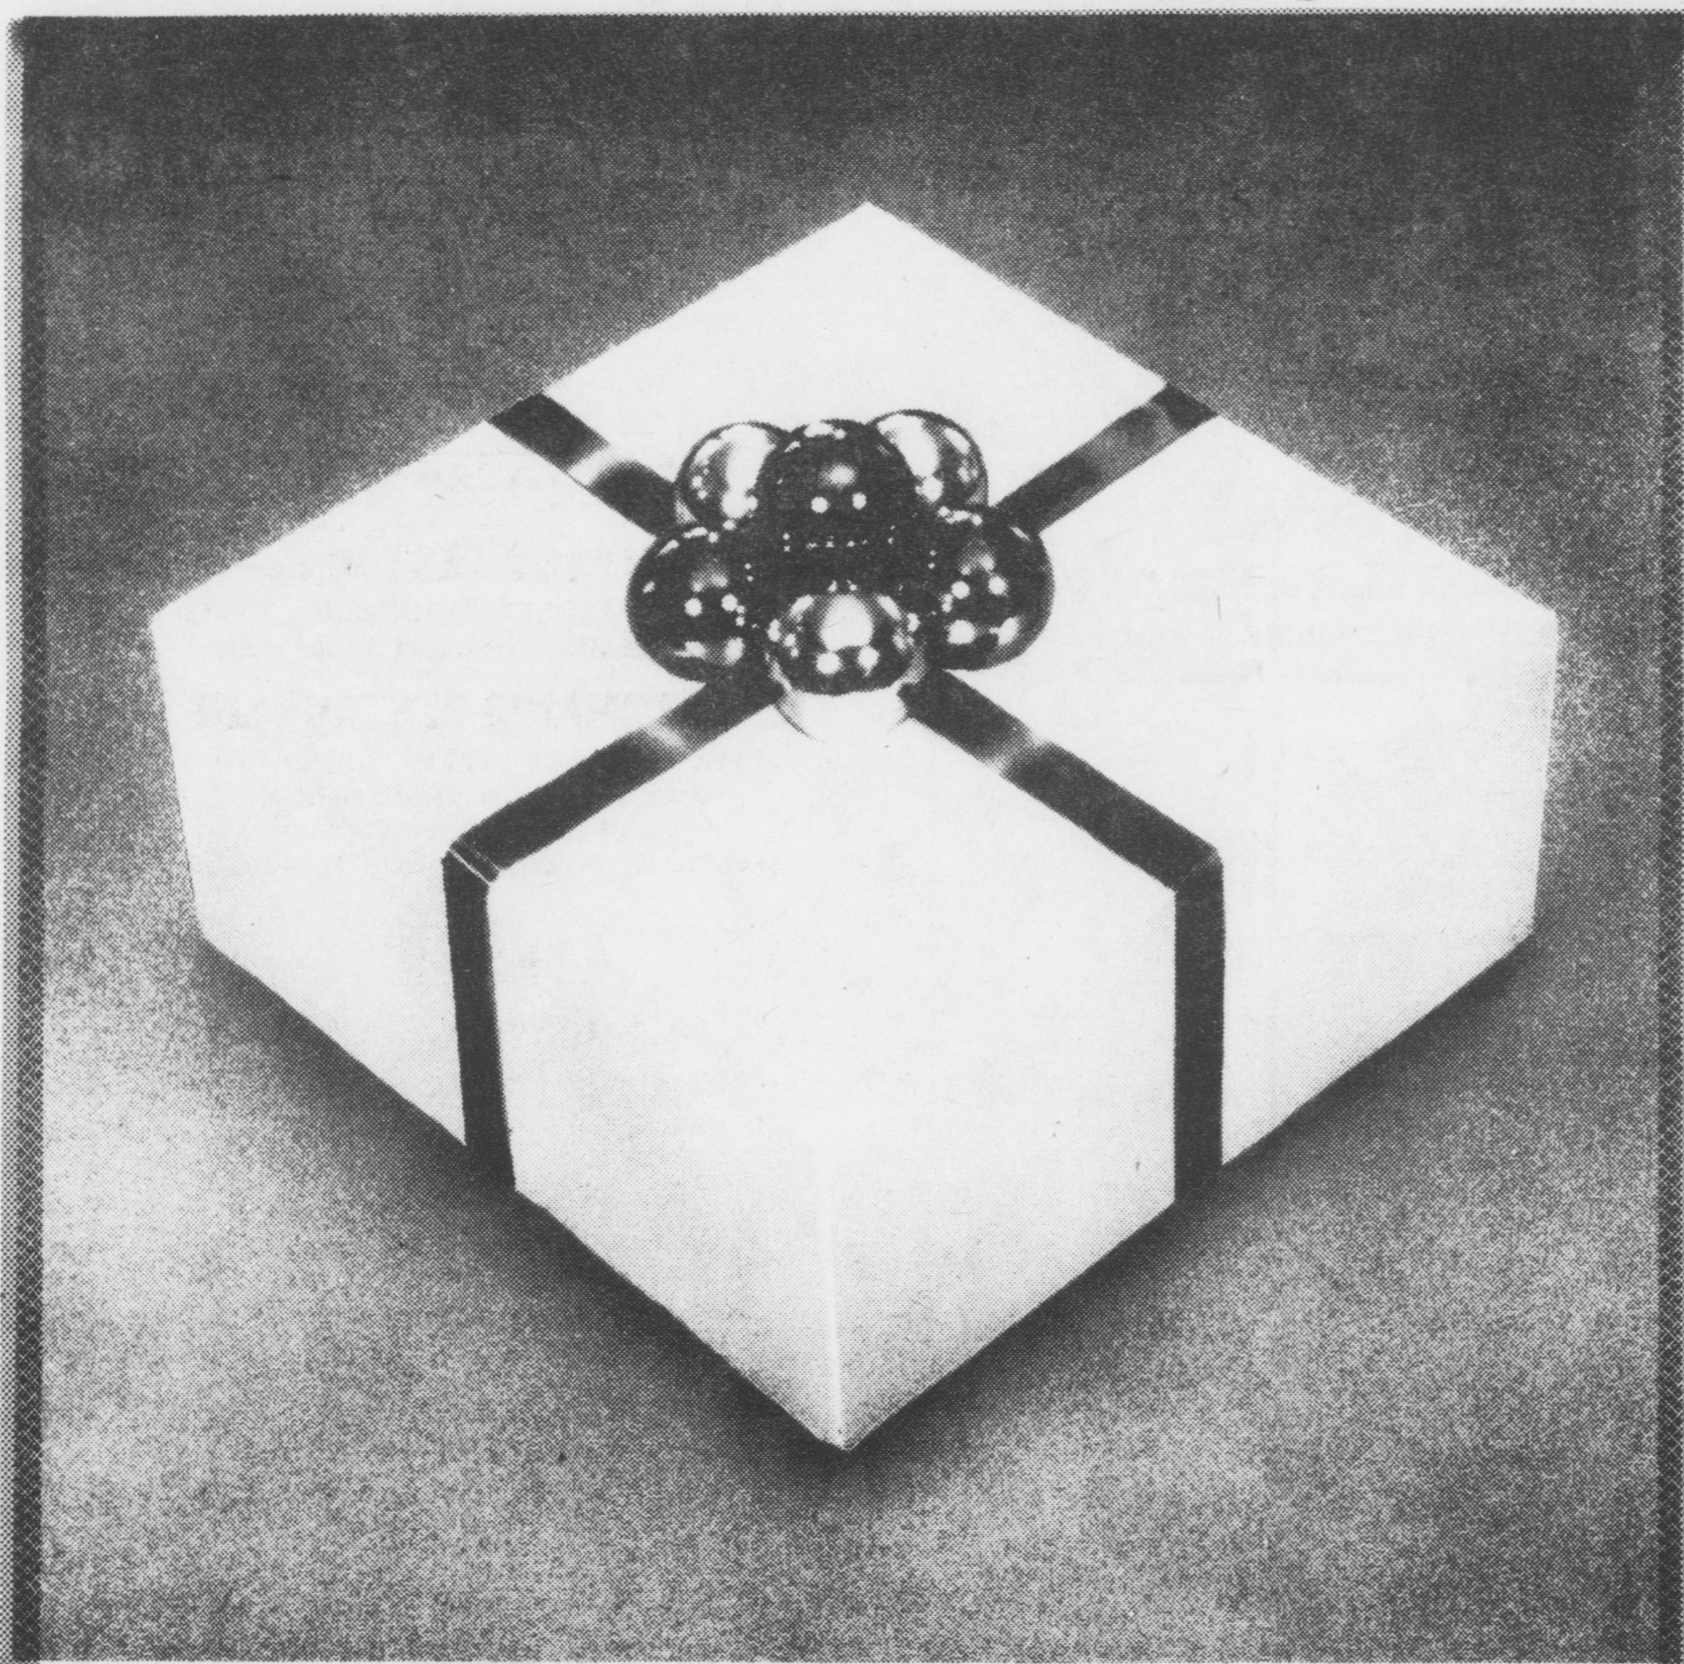

Carrie E. Greenley, 89, of 4095 Forest Road, Westvue Estates, Mount Joy RD3, formerly of Talmadge, died Friday at Lancaster General Hospital.

She was the widow of Albert Y. Greenley. Before she lived with her daughter in Mount Joy she had been a guest at the Lehman Nursing Home in Rheems.

Mrs. Greenley was a life-long member of the Salem United Church of Christ in Leola.

Born in New Holland, she was the daughter of the late William and Susanne Groff Sprecher.

She is survived by a daughter, Florence, wife of Robert L. Garber, Mount Joy RD3, and one granddaughter.

WE HAVE PLANS FOR YOU.

Andante to play for PUFA

PUFA—People United For the Arts—will hold its next meeting on Tuesday, November 14 in the art room at Donegal High School. The meeting starts at 7:30 PM.

A special musical program will be presented by Adante, a vocal group composed of Kathy Milovanovic, Carol Witman, Sharon Zimmerman, and Becky Zimmerman. The sisters will sing excerpts from their new album and some other numbers.

PUFA urges all interested citizens to attend the meeting and hear the program. No admission will be charged.

PUFA also invited you to come to the annual Veteran's Day program at Donegal High on Saturday evening, November 11th, at 7:30 PM. This tribute to our veterans will be filled with music, song, and drama, and is FREE.

The Veteran's Day program, performed by the DHS dramatics club, will be under the direction of Mrs. Mary-Margaret Peraro.

Gray Panthers

On Saturday, November 11, at 2:0 PM, there will be an organizational meeting for Gray Panthers Network in the YMCA, Lancaster.

Young folk, elder folk and those in between are invited to attend, since the Gray Panthers are Youth and Age in action to produce a better life.

Come with some suggestions for action to promote your concerns.
