Mitchell Mummmaw

Mitch Mummmaw becomes Eagle Scout

Mitchell D. Mummmaw, 16, received an Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony conducted by Troop 63 of Mount Joy. The Court of Honor was held at Glossbrenner United Methodist Church on November 19.

The award was presented by Gerald Alleman, Western District Advancement Chairman, and by James Ruhl, Scoutmaster of Troop 63.

Mitch Mummmaw is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Drew Mummmaw, 717 Bruce Avenue, Mount Joy. Mitch is an active member of Glossbrenner U.M. Church, and serves as treasurer of the Youth Fellowship there.

A junior at Donegal High School, he is enrolled in the academic course, and is a member of the DHS Marching Band, Concert Band, and Stage Band. He also plays on the tennis team and works with the dramatics club.

Outside school, Mitch is a member of the Mount Joy Lions Swim Club Team and the Junior Rifle Team of the Mount Joy Sportsman's Club.

To earn his Eagle award, he co-ordinated the job of painting all the entrances to Glossbrenner Church.

Mitch plans to attend college after he graduates.

Mark Wagner becomes Eagle Scout

Mark Wagner

Mark F. Wagner, 16, received an Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony conducted by Troop 63 of Mount Joy. The Court of Honor was held at Glossbrenner United Methodist Church on November 19th.

The award was presented by Gerald Alleman, Western District Advancement Chairman, and by James Ruhl, Scoutmaster of Troop 63.

Mark F. Wagner is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Clair L. Wagner, Jr., of 713 Church Street, Mount Joy. He is a junior at Donegal High, where he plays trombone in the DHS and Stage Bands, sings in the chorus and with the Rhythm

Singers, and is a member of the drama club.

A member of Glossbrenner U.M. Church, Mark is active in Youth Fellowship and sings in the Chancel Choir.

Mark started his scouting career as a Cub with Pack 263 in Mount Joy. As a Cub he received the Arrow of Light award, the highest that a Cub Scout can get. He has attended Camp Bashore for 4 years.

He is also a member of the Order of the Arrow, an organization for Honor Scouts. For his Eagle Scout Service Project, Mark created a library for Glossbrenner Church.

Mark intends to go to college after he graduates.

Benefit luncheon planned

At the November meeting of the Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital, plans were completed for a Holiday Benefit Luncheon to be held Monday, December 4, at 12:30 P.M., at the home of Mrs. Mary Sarver, Rheems. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Sylvia Henry with Miss Ruth Wisman as co-hostess.

The luncheon will have a mouth watering menu of Oyster Bisque, Irish Coffee, Velvet Fruit Salad, Christmas Cookies, etc. A recipe exchange for a cookie tasting event and holiday goodies and novelties will be offered for sale. Members have tickets for chances on a holiday cheer basket of goodies to be awarded to a lucky winner.

Mrs. Joe Carroll presided at the business session when Mrs. William Heisey opened the meeting with readings entitled "November, The Mayflower" and "The Little Things."

Mrs. George Houseal, chairperson of a recent pinocle party benefit, reported a profit of $147.80. A memorial was sent to the Columbia Hospital in memory of Mrs. Elizabeth McKain.

Present was Doris Morrow, from Donegal, Ireland, who expressed her pleasure being in America. She explained the revolution in her home country is only 20 miles from her home. Ms. Morrow related incidents happening in Ireland, which have been going on for centuries without an end in sight. She stated attacks on various structures are done to call attention to the cause, which to some Irishmen seems pointless.
