

If you are a senior citizen and want work, read this

Senior citizens age 55 and over who are interested in working should contact the Lancaster County Office of Aging at their earliest convenience.

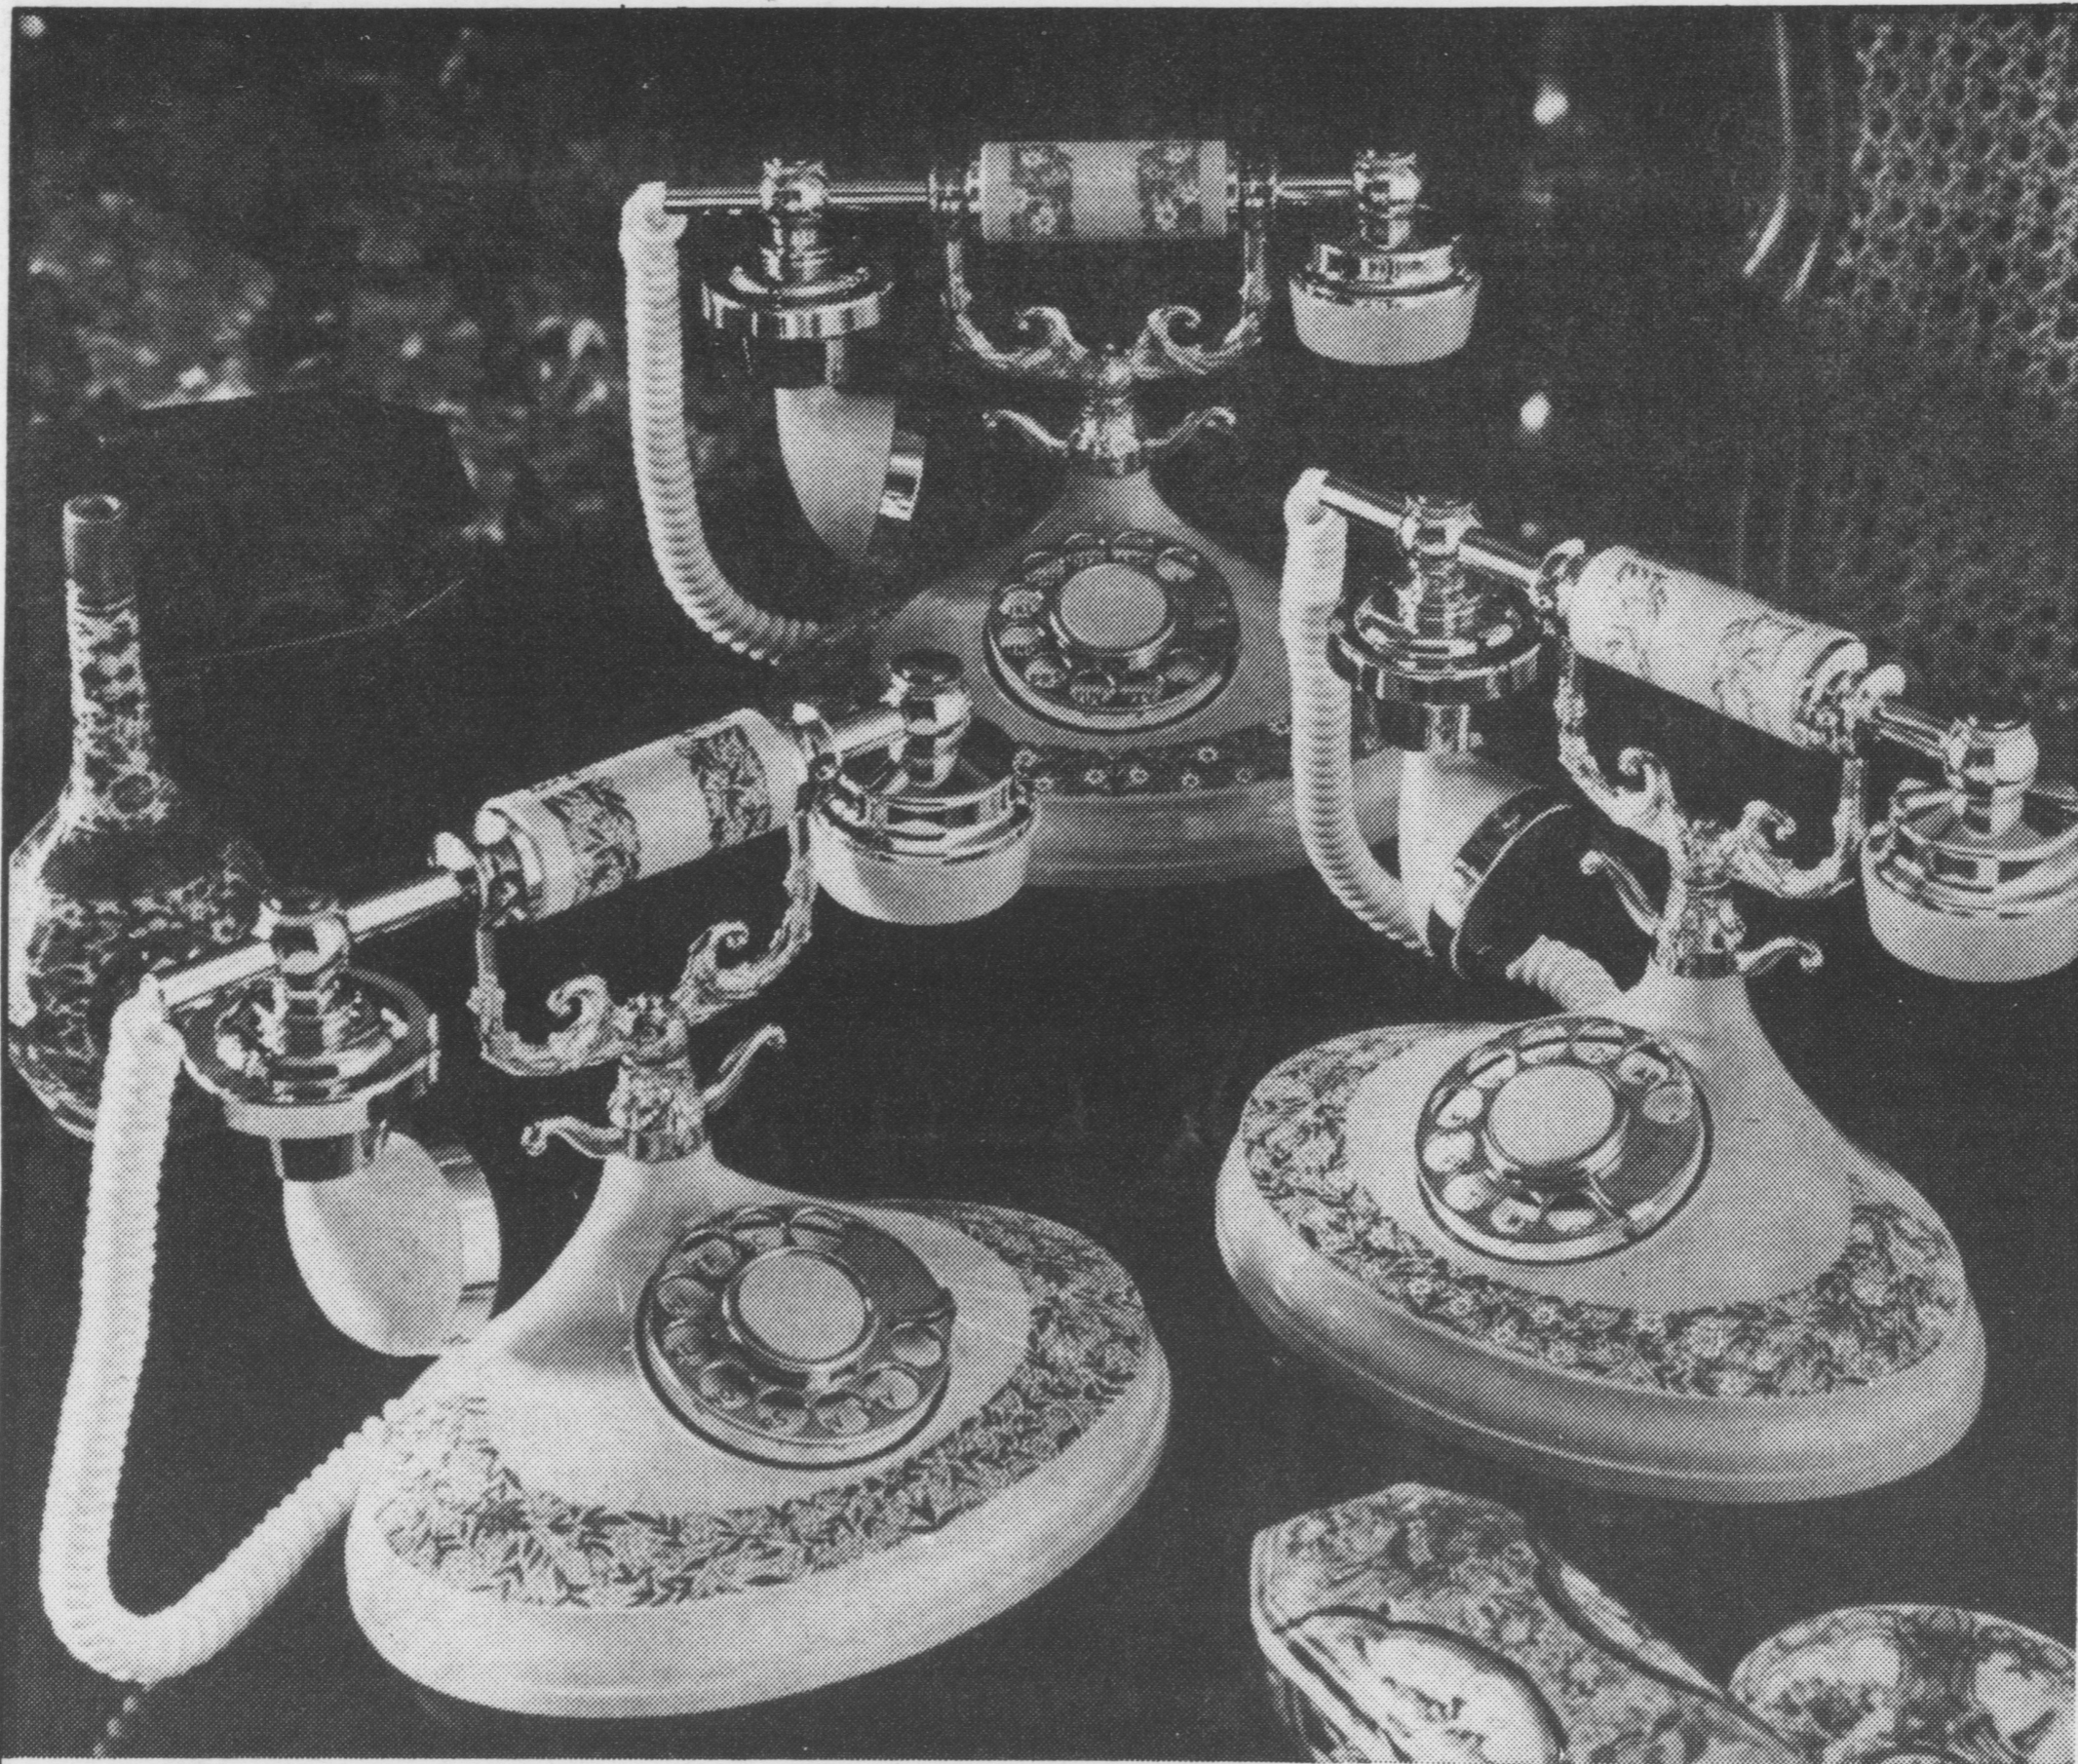

A limited number of part-time positions are available through the CETA program and the Senior Community Service Employment Program until the end of December. Maximum income limits for these programs are $261.00 per month for a one-person family and $378.00 per month for a two person family. Any older individual who meets these requirements and is considering working now or in 1979 should contact the Office of Aging in the near future. For those individuals who do not meet these income requirements, positions continue to be available through the Senior Job Bank. For more information contact Kay Rizzuto, Office of Aging, 50 N. Duke Street, Lancaster, Pa. 299-7979.

Michter's Distillery to be subject of talk

The astonishing story of how a little distillery in Schaefferstown, Michter's, has upstaged the big producers will be told by Martin D. Yocum at the Lancaster Advertising Club meeting at Armstrong Manor on Thursday, December 14.

Michter's, who boast that "we were making Sour Mash a good hundred years before Jack Daniel's was wet behind the ears," will host a taste test for club members and guests before dinner.

Anyone interested in advertising and marketing is invited to attend. Call Emily Bucher, (717) 393-6186.
