

Business and Professional Women hear about welfare fraud

Mrs. Dorothy Forney was the guest speaker for the November session of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's meeting. "Welfare in Pennsylvania" was the subject of discussion. Forney is the co-founder of the National Welfare Fraud Association and also the Administrative Assistant to Senator Richard Snyder, Harrisburg.

Mrs. Forney explained that fraud is caused by poorly trained personnel, errors, Supreme Court decisions which affect the welfare system, and by lack of investigation into individual cases. In the state of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Forney said 33% of the state budget goes for welfare, 52% for education, and the remaining 15% for all other areas.

Ada Thompson, chairperson of the Public Relations committee, introduced the speaker. Marlene Bell presented selections on the piano.

Mrs. Yvonne Koser, president, conducted the business session. The group adopted the recommendation of the Board to contribute $1.00 per member to the National Federation from the Convention Fund.

Miss Kristan Straub, a finalist in the Miss Teenager contest to be held in Williamsport Community College June 1-3, will be co-sponsored by the club.

The Christmas session will be held Monday, December 11. Sharon Givler, Associate of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, will present a costumed monologue of Mary as she anticipates the birth of her son. The Hempfield Singers will also entertain with seasonal music.
