

Maytown Scout Pack 53

Maytown Cub Scout pack gets organized

The recently reorganized Maytown Cub Scout Pack #53 held its first pack meeting Monday, December 4 at the East Donegal Township Municipal Building. Cubmaster, Ron Mullens, addressed the group and introduced the den leaders as: Bernie Donley - Den 1, Assistant - Odella McDonald; Jeannette Ruth - Den 2, Assistant - Judy Wilson, Den Chief - Bob Migash. Following introductions, Cubmaster Mullens led group participation in game round-ups.

The Webelos exhibited their woodworking skills while Dens 1 and 2 greeted all with rousing den cheers and exhibits of bird feeders. The acknowledgements

Pack Chairman, Donald Ruth, introduced the following committee members: Marcia Mullens, Secretary/Treasurer, Harold Wilson, Advancement, Kathy Bote, Janie Mohr and Kathy McNaughton - Transportation, Pat Gilmartin - Publicity. Chairman Ruth acknowledged the pack's first fund raising event, a recent bake sale, as a huge success with appreciation extended to the community for its support. Also in attendance was scout spokesman J. C. Ruoalf - District Director for Lanco-Lebanon Boy Scout Council.

The projected pack activities for December are:

participation in "Gold Rush Days" at Franklin and Marshall College, Saturday, December 9; a sale of delectable French Chocolate Mints in conjunction with discount coupons at Pizza Hut; and a December 18 pack meeting at St. John's Lutheran Church when the cubs and families will join in a Christmas carol feast followed by refreshments. The pack meeting was closed with the traditional scout circle.
