

Lions hear from District 14D governor

The Mount Joy Lions Club met on Tuesday, December 5th, at Hostetter's Banquet Hall. Their guest was the Lions District 14D governor, Lion Elvin Hess. Hess was accompanied by deputy district governor Charles Steinman and zone chairman Marvin Boyer, Jr. The governor must visit each of his area's 58 Lions clubs during his year in office.

Mount Joy Lions president Jim Roberts introduced Boyer, who announced a Region I rally to be held on January 9th, at 7:00 PM, at Elizabethtown College. Tickets will cost $6.25, he said.

He then introduced Mr. Steinman, who told the group of another event—the District 14D Rally to be held at Dutch Town and Country Restaurant on the Lincoln Highway East, Lancaster, on Saturday, March 24th.

Governor Hess was presented by Steinman. Hess elaborated on the theme of Lions International, "Love, compassion, and spirit in action." He spoke of the need to build club membership and attendance at the state convention in Harrisburg on May 17-20 of next year. He said the same of the international convention in Montreal on June 20-23.

Lion Ken Roth, chairman of the recent sale, said that there are many brooms and light bulbs left over now that the sale is finished. Anyone who wants to buy some should contact a member of the Mount Joy Lions Club.

The next meeting will be a "ladies' night" Christmas party at Hostetter's Banquet Hall on Tuesday, December 19th. It will start at 6:00 PM with a punch bowl and social time. Dinner will be served at 6:30.

The entertainment will be provided by the Hohenwarter Family from E-town. This event's committee consists of Ken McKain (president), Eugene Bender, Charles Hershey, and Tim Langenback.

Farm Women's Society holds Christmas meeting at Vera Frey's house

Farm Women's Society #8 held their annual Christmas party at the home of Vera Frey, Marietta RD, on December 9th at 6:30 PM.

Kathryn Heisey, the Society president, directed the program.

Covered dishes of food were brought by members and delicious roast turkey was served. Forty-seven people, including husbands and friends, enjoyed the festive time together. Hostesses were Vera Frey, Agnes Houseal, and Margaret Heisey.

Agnes Houseal was in charge of games.

Reverend Victor Baer, minister of the Donegal

Presbyterian Church, gave a brief pre-Christmas message during devotional time.

Christmas carols were sung, led by Mrs. Baer. Good wishes were exchanged before each one returned.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs.

Pauline Miller, 426 Donegal Springs Road, Mount Joy, on January 20th, at 2:00 PM. Reports of the convention will be given and a musical package will be included. Devotions will be in charge of Mary Grace Martin. Hostesses will be Pauline Miller, Kathryn Heisey, Kathryn Erb and Mary Reist.

Ladies Guild honors Ruth Fahringer, Ruth Simmons and Mary Hendrixson

Seven women were honored with gifts of appreciation:

For their many years of active and faithful participation in the Guild, these women were honored: Ruth Fahringer, Ruth Simmons, and Mary Hendrixson.

On Thursday, December 7th, the Ladies Guild of Zion's UCC in Marietta held their annual Christmas party.

The delectable meal was prepared by Reba Shuman, Theresa Runkle, Gladys Rettew, and Mary Dorber.

A Christmas thought and prayer was offered by Eunice Rex. Everyone enjoyed singing carols and exchanging gifts.

Honored for their outstanding contributions and for the time they gave working on the Holiday Bazaars were Reba Shuman, Gladys Rettew, and Helen McKain.

For many years of devotion to the church through her music, Elsie Byers was given a check.

The goal of the Guild is to help the church with special projects throughout the year, to promote Christian fellowship, and to grow individually with the spirit of love to God and His church.

Anyone is welcome to join with the Guild on the 1st Thursday of each month.
