Christmas Eve at St. Mark's UM

by W. Richard Kohler

Two Christmas Eve Services will take place by candlelight in the sanctuary of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy. The 8 p.m. service is a Family Celebration which features music by all three choirs of the church. For his organ recital before the service, Mr. Gerald L. Miller will play "O Hail This Brightest Day of Days" by Bach, "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming" by Brahms and "Noel with Variations" by Daquin. Mr. Miller will repeat this recital at 11.

this special night: "Joseph, Dearest Joseph Mine," arr. by Bodenschatz, "The Savior of the World Is Born" by Holst, "Silent Night" arr. by Wilson, and "Two Slovak Carols" ('Shepherds of Bthlehem' and 'Heaven's Dawn Is Breaking Brightly') arr. by Schalk. In addition, a ladies chorus will offer "A Manger Carol" by Purvis and "Sing Gloria" by Davis.

The Offertory music will be an organ-flute duet. Mr. Miller will be joined by Miss Ramona Sell in playing "I Am So Glad Each Christmas Eve."

Cherub Choir selections include "A Tiny Town of Bethlehem" by Fuller-Lewis and "Away in a Manger", a traditional carol. The Celestial Choir, comprised of children from grades three through six, will sing "In Bethlehem" arranged by Graham and "All My Heart This Night Rejoices" by Cornell.

Mrs. Marilyn Miller conducts all the church choirs and Mrs. Sharon Brown accompanies the Cherub Choir.

The 11 p.m., service features candle-light and carols. Soloists include Mrs. Carole Musser, soprano, and Mr. Michael Kohler, baritone, who will sing "No Golden Carriage, No Bright Toy" by Gilbert Martin. The Pastor's theme for the evening messages is "While Men Sleep."

The church's Chancel choir has prepared the following special music for

Jr. Troop had active year

by Sharon V. Marley

Junior Troop #331 has been very busy since scouts began in the Fall.

We embroidered with thread and liquid embroidery on squares to make a baby quilt for Needlework Guild. It was a real thrill to see the finished product on display at the Tea the Ladies of the Guild held for all the Girl Scouts.

Skating was next on our agenda under the heading of "Fun." We were invited by Junior Troop #35 to go to Mount Gretna with all the troops in Mount Joy.

Then came our Halloween party. The setting was a "graveyard." We had a visit from Dr. Halloween who brought a body along for us to examine while we were blindfolded. How we screamed! Much to our surprise the body turned out to be our leader, Mrs. Marley.

We got down to the business of making gifts for our families. The gifts were displayed at our Court of Awards on December 13.

Our greatest joy of all was the first visit to the Masonic Homes to visit our new "Grandparents." We made fruit baskets for them and we began to learn a little about each other. This will be a monthly visit for the rest of the scout year.

The annual Court of Awards and Christmas party was enjoyed by parents and girls alike. The following girls received The Sign of the Arrow: Betsy Marley, Wendy Gantz, Kathy Henly, Jackie Wealand, Deb Yingst, and Roberta Dissinger. Lisa Ruhl, Elizabeth Edwards, Shari Eshleman and Carris ourglivch received The Sign of the Star.

Monday, December 20, our troop invited other troops to join us to go Christmas caroling through Mount Joy. We will leave Glossbrenner United Methodist Church at 6:30 p.m. and head toward the downtown area.

The following girls and adults make up Troop #331: Mrs. Sharon Marley, Mrs. Becky Heller, Miss Nancy Ettaro, Betsy Marley, Wendy Gantz, Kathy Henly Deb Yingst, Jackie Wealand, Robert Dissinger, Shari Eshleman, Lisa Ruhl, Elizabeth Edwards, Carris Yourglivch, Diane Rusnock, Carol Stonesifer, Leah Aston, and Tammy Stoe.
