Handel's 'Messiah' at Donegal Church

Members of the Donegal Presbyterian Church, R.D. #1, Mount Joy, will present Handel's "Christmas Messiah" at two candlelight services on Sunday, December 19, at 4 and 7:30 p.m. The special musical Christmas program will feature Mrs. Lynn Evinger, The Reverend Robert L. Murphy, Mrs. Millard, and Mrs. Sonia Forry, who will sing under the direction of Mrs. Lynn Millard. Stanley Dottorer will be organist.

Members will be in colonial costume for the centuries-old presentation. The difficulty and length of the work, probably the most famous oratorio ever written, make this a challenge for the vocalists. The church, which dates back to the 18th century, will be decorated with simple arrangements of greens and home-made candles constructed by members of the congregation. A wreath, used as a focal point, will be made by Mrs. Sonia Forry.

In observance of the Bicentennial year the choir performed at the Derry Street, Presbyterian church, Hershey, and the Paxtang Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg. These tree congregations shared a pastorate in the early 1700's.
