Reverend entertains Sr. League

The Reverend and Mrs. Elmer Horst, Hershey, were guest entertainers for the annual Marietta Senior League Christmas banquet at Lacy's Lounge. Reverend Horst, Pastor of the Fishbeurn Methodist Church, Hershey, used puppets to reveal the various natures of people. Then, portraying a shepherd, Horst gave his version of the Christmas story.

The guest of honor also played carols on cow bells and presented several violin solos. The League presented a poinsettia to the Reverend and his wife. The 86 persons attending the dinner joined in carol singing under the direction of Mrs. Richard Hawthorne.

Officers of the club presented the president, Mrs. Paul Portner, a gift and a gavel, made by Moses Kauffman, Bainbridge.

Favors were crocheted Santa head doorknobs.

A gift exchange with Elmer Appley in the little red suit and door prizes completed the entertainment.
