

Marietta Senior League sees magic show

Peter Watt, a well-known magician, performed his arcane crafts for the Marietta Senior League last week at Mr. Lacy's Lounge along the Rte. 441 bypass, Marietta.

The sixty-odd members and guests present that night were baffled and astounded by Watt's card tricks, sleight-of-hand, and apparent ESP.

The Rev. Thomas S. Wood offered an invocation and there was group singing of carols. Gifts were exchanged; Florence Burriss presented the men's gifts, and Elmer Appley presented the ladies' favors.

Mrs. Freda Betz won the door prize.

President Mrs. Mary Portner was given a gift by the whole group.

The Senior Leaguers sang "Happy Birthday" to three people who had one this month: Mrs. Rhobie Grove, Mrs. Winnefred Buell, and Mr. Robert Berghaus. The fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Hank was announced.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miley, one of the League's oldest members, is a patient in Columbia Hospital at the moment.

Each member brought a gift for shut-ins in the Marietta area, and pointsettias will be presented people in hospitals and nursing homes.

Christmas cheer!

Bringing the sweet music of an old-fashioned Christmas to our loyal friends.
Our thanks.

Five generations

With the birth of Joshua Bradley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Bradley of Mount Joy, a fifth generation has been established.

Three-month-old Joshua is a great-great-grandson of Russell Shope, formerly of Marietta. His father Kevin is the only grandson of Mrs. Dorothy Hoover of Marietta. His father, Jerry Bradley, is the only son of Mrs. Hoover.

Young Josh and his father and mother (the former Suzanna Frey of Maytown) live at RD2 Mount Joy.

Kevin Bradley was a football star while at Donegal High.
