TYSC!! What is it??

TYSC!! What is it? TYSC stands for Youth Traffic Safety Council, which is sponsored by the Governor of Pennsylvania. On the second Wednesday of each month during the year, representatives from each school in the Lancaster/Lebanon Intermediate Unit 13 meet at the Brownstown Vo-Tech. The purpose of these meetings is to promote highway safety and obedience to traffic laws. The council representatives discuss and plan ideas and projects to carry out this purpose. Some of the past projects awarded safe driving certi-ificates to high school students and performed minor inspections. TYSC is working to promote safety to Lancaster and Lebanon county residents and visitors. Donegal High School's representatives to the TYSC this year are Chris Spickler and Julie Endslow.

Lots of music at Trinity Lutheran

"For Unto Us A Child Is Born" will be presented by the Senior Choir at Trinity Lutheran Church, Mount Joy, Sunday, December 24 at the 10:45 a.m. service.

The Christmas Cantata, written by J. S. Bach, will feature soloists Samuel Harnish, baritone, Dorothy Heilig, soprano and Barbara Klepper, alto.

To begin the service, Leona Frances Woskowiak, Director of Music and organist, will play the Christmas Chorale, "Good News from Heaven the Angels Bring" by Jahann Pachelbel and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by J. S. Bach. Adding to the festive Advent service will be the offertory "Meditation on 'Away in a Manger'" and the postlude "Organ Voluntary: 'Joy To The World,'" both arranged by Dr. Woskowiak.

Sunday evening will continue the Christmas Eve day and evening worship with a candlelight family service at 7 p.m. and a candlelight communion service at 11 p.m.

At the 7 p.m. service, the Junior Choir, under the direction of Dr. Woskowiak and accompanied by Jane Drenner, will sing "Song of the Littlest Angel" by Ruth Artman and "Sing Noel" by Natalie Sleeth.

The Rev. David E. Klepper, Jr., pastor, will preach a children's sermon in which the children of the congregation will participate as members of the story of the First Christmas.

Service music includes "Church Prelude: 'O Come All Ye Faithful'" and "Choral Prelude: 'O Holy Night'" both arranged by Dr. Woskowiak.

The offertory "God's Greatest Creation, the Christmas Miracle" is an organ composition written and dedicated to the congregation of Trinity Lutheran Church, Mount Joy by Leona Frances Woskowiak. The postlude will be "The Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah" by G. F. Handel.

At 8, 9, and 10 p.m. the organist will play 3 short carol recitals on the outdoor carillon.

The 11 p.m. candlelight communion service will be preceded by a recital given by L. F. Woskowiak.

The recital consists of the following numbers: Noel X: "Grand jeu et Duo" by Louis Claude Daquin; "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah" by G. F. Handel; Noel VI: "Noel sur les jeux d'Anches et en Duo" by Louis Claude Daquin; Prelude: "O Little Town of Bethlehem" by William H. Oetting; Noel XII: "Noel Suisse, Grand jeu et Duo" by Louis Claude Daquin; "Pastorale: Gesu Bambino" for organ and chimes by Pietro Yon with the chimes played by Kathy Klepper; "Chorale Prelude: 'What Child Is This'" by Paul Manz and "Kolendy" an organ voluntary based on traditional Polish carols written by Leona Frances Woskowiak and dedicated to her parents Charles and Helen Woskowiak of Lancaster.

The recital begins at 10:30 p.m. and leads into the service. Service music includes "Choral Prelude: 'O Come All Ye Faithful'" by Dr. Woskowiak and "O Holy Night" by Adolphe Adam with Dorothy Heilig, soprano soloist.

The offertory "God's Greatest Creation, the Christmas Miracle" and the postlude "Meditation of Silent Night" both by Dr. Woskowiak.

The Senior Choir will present "Christmas Day" by Gustav Holst; "Lullaby" by John Ness Beck and "Peace, Peace" by R. and S. Powell.

This service concludes with the candlelighting service during which the congregation sings "Silent Night" and the choir sings "Peace, Peace." At the end, all candles are extinguished except those used by the choir, who proceed to the back of the church during the last verse of "Silent Night." The choir ends the service with a short Choral Benediction. This is followed by a subdued organ postlude, to capture the mood of the service and this Christmas night.
