

Leisure Club Christmas party

Captain Luther Henry's one-man band appears

The Mount Joy Leisure Club held their annual Christmas party recently at Hostetter's and following the invocation by Dr. Ezra Ranck, 160 members and friends enjoyed a very delicious dinner. Following the dinner, president Joe Shaeffer introduced the entertainment for the evening, the performing artist being Captain Luther Henry, the one-man band. Captain Henry, who is associated with the Lancaster Police Force, presented a very delightful and entertaining program; in fact they didn't want him to stop playing.

Following the entertainment, Christmas carols were sung by the group, accompanied by Mildred Way at the piano. The Christmas story as found in the gospel of Luke was read by Mrs. Joseph Shaeffer. The report of the nominating committee was presented by Jay Sherk, chairman. The following people were nominated for the coming year:

President, Joe Shaeffer; 1st vice president, James Schneider; 2nd vice president, Eva Groff; secretary, Yeressa Heisey; assistant secretary, Nedra Brandt; treasurer, Almeda Hostetter; assistant treasurer, John Brown; recording secretary, Romaine Good; and assistant recording secretary, Ruth Brandt.

There being no other nominations, the above were elected to serve next year. The nominating committee were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sherk and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bentzel.

One couple present, Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Landvater, were celebrating their 54th wedding anniversary. The tables were decorated with 22 fruit baskets, candles and greens by Bertha Foreman and her committee. Following the meeting the fruit baskets were given to those having lucky numbers.

President Shaeffer announced that the next meeting would be on January 8 and would begin at 1:00 PM. President Shaeffer also announced he would like to meet the officers and Bertha Foreman and her committee at his home on January 3rd at 1:00 PM to plan for the coming year. Hostesses for the January meeting are Mrs. Earl Simons, Mrs. James Schneider, Mrs. Amos Rutt, Mrs. Jay Sherk, Gertrude Scheffler, Mrs. David Stauffer, Mrs. Joseph Shaeffer, Mary Shaeffer, Mrs. Irving LeVin and Mary Rhinehart.

In closing the meeting president Shaeffer thanked the officers and the committees for their fine cooperation and hard work during this year. At the January meeting Mr. Arthur Brown will install the new officers. The greeters for the January meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown.
