A SPECIAL NOTICE

We're pleased to report the continuing reduction of the Federal Excise Tax levy on your monthly bill for telephone service.

The effective tax rate is to be lowered from 4 per cent to 3 per cent on bills for telephone service rendered on or after January 1, 1979.

Additional rate reductions are scheduled to become effective each year until 1982. At that time the Federal Excise Tax on telephone service, first levied at a rate of 10 per cent as an "emergency measure" during World War II, will be eliminated.
