

Adams elected Worshipful Master of Lodge No. 551

Robert W. Adams has been elected worshipful master of Casiphia Lodge, No. 551, Free and Accepted Masons, Mount Joy. He lives at 772 Church Street, Landisville.

R. Bruce Bernhard, of 125 Spring Garden Street,

Mount Joy RD2, was elected senior warden, and Jay Warren Smith, of Mount Joy RD2, was elected junior warden. The immediate past master, Robert E. Rohrer, was elected Treasurer. Rollin C. Steinmetz was re-elected secretary.

W. Scott Stoner, past master of the Lodge and District Deputy Grand Master, was elected representative in the Grand Lodge.

Trustees Gene J. Grubb, Marlin A. Thompson, and Robert S. Eshleman were re-elected.

Adams, the new master, is a district manager for Hoffman Seed Company, Landisville. A graduate of Solanco High School, he is married and has two children. A member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, he is also affiliated with other Masonic bodies.

The Lodge celebrated its 100th anniversary last year.

Adams will announce his appointive officers at the stated meeting of January 12th, at which time the ceremony of Passing to the Chair will be conferred upon Marlin A. Thompson.

Honeybees trap pollutants

Honeybees are being used by scientists studying air pollution. The bees concentrate certain pollutants in their bodies, and so can serve as an early warning of some chemicals in the environment.

You'll find . . .
TRENDLINE fits them ALL.

Corny but true. The stylish and compact TRENDLINE® is designed to fit most anywhere you need it. Put a TRENDLINE in that tight nook in the kitchen or on that already too small night stand in the bedroom. A TRENDLINE would look just right under that over crowded counter or even on the wall between ma and pa's picture. And what about color? Yes, we have a great choice of colors. And not just any colors, but decorator colors like:

- Aqua Blue
- Beige
- Black
- Burnt Orange
- Cherry Red
- Cocoa Brown
- Harvest Gold
- Moss Green™
- White
