Kim Wickes to sing at Congregational Bible Church

Miss Kim Wickes, a blind Korean soloist who has appeared in concert throughout Asia, Europe, and the U.S., will sing and tell the story of her life at Congregational Bible Church, Rte. 441, Marietta, on Saturday, January 27th, at 7:30 PM.

As a three-year-old, she was blinded by a bomb during the North Korean invasion of South Korea in 1950. Later, her father threw Kim and her younger sister into a river and her sister drowned, but Kim was rescued.

When she was 10 Kim was adopted by an American family, Mr. and Mrs. George Wickes of Dayton, Indiana. She holds a Bachelor's and Master's degrees in music from Indiana University. She was awarded a Fulbright scholarship to study at the Vienna Institute of Music.

Following completion of her studies, Kim began a program of public appearances at the International Congress on World Evangelization at Lausanne, Switzerland, before returning to her home country.

Since then Kim has sung at numerous public events and has appeared on television and radio. In addition, she has made recordings and has written a book about her life. Her story is soon to be filmed by World Wide Pictures.

The public is invited to the concert. There is no admission charge, but an offering will be taken for Kim's ministries among the blind, disabled veterans, and orphans.

Reese and Ricedorf appointed to Board of Directors of Sico Company

The Sico Company has announced the recent appointment of Michael T. Reese and Charles W. Ricedorf as new members to the Board of Directors.

In making the announcement, Sico's president, Robert P. McGinley, reported that the company's board is now at its full nine-member strength.

Other members of the board, in addition to president McGinley, are Dr. D.L. Biemesderfer, Arthur A. Hackman, Franklin R. Eichler, Robert K. Shank, Raymond T. Rinehart, and Edward W. Zercher, Jr.

Reese, a 1964 graduate of Franklin and Marshall College, joined the Sico Company in 1971 as a wholesale sales representative. Since July 1976, he has the position of marketing manager. Prior to his association with Sico, Reese was a high school teacher at Lancaster Catholic.

He is a member of St. Leo the Great Catholic Church, Rohrerstown, and resides at 65 Country Lane, Landisville, with his wife Sally and children, Tom and Beth.

Ricedorf came to Sico in 1959, and is currently treasurer and director of the Rollman Supply Co., a subsidiary of the Sico Company.

For the past seven years, Ricedorf has been a Mount Joy Borough Councilman. He is a member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, and resides at 242 Park Avenue with his wife Joyce and daughters Stacy and Stephanie.
