Guard of the Month

Mike Sarbaugh is Seiler School's Guard of the Month for January. He is in Mr. Miller's 5th-6th grade class.

Welcome Wagon aids Library

The Mount Joy Welcome Wagon will hold a book drive for the benefit of the Mount Joy Library, and they ask for your support. Do you have any old books you don't want or need? If so, please drop them in the book collection boxes located in many local businesses or, if you have a great many books to donate, call 653-1781 to arrange pickup.

This is the first of many community projects which the Welcome Wagon Club performs each year. They visit the ladies in the Schock Home monthly, visit new people in the community, and help the library in other ways. Right now the club is selling tickets to their Spring Shopping Spree.

The drawing for the $50 gift certificate from Watt & Shand will be held at the club's March 21st meeting. Tickets can be obtained from any club member.

The proceeds of the Welcome Wagon projects are fed back into the community projects of the club. All of the hostesses' time is donated.

If you know of any newcomers to the Mount Joy area, a newly engaged couple, or a new-born baby, the club asks that you call one of their hostesses: Cherie Dillow, 653-1609, or Pat Burton, 653-1963.

The fifty-year-old lily plant

Burriss' lily plant blooms for 50th straight year!

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burriss, R.D.1, Marietta, have a most unusual plant, a lily, which has been in Ray's possession for fifty years, in the same pot of dirt, which blossoms every winter.

This year the lily put out its first petals on January 28. Buds began to form in the fall.

But there were some anxious moments in the Burriss household before those buds appeared.

Last summer, for the first time, Mrs. Burriss cut the plant back to the dirt, while it was outside. Ray, especially, was worried about whether the lily would come up again, but it did, and the flowers are lovelier than ever.

The plant was first given to Ray almost fifty years ago by Mr. and Mrs. Al Zinn. Ray doesn't know for how many years it was blossoming before that.

But every year this plant bursts into bloom and brightens the Burriss' house. "We're like two kids over it," says Mrs. Burriss.
