Pack 53 activities

The Maytown Cub Scout Pack #53 held their January 29 Pack meeting at St. John's Lutheran Church, Maytown, the pack sponsor. Cubmaster Ron Mulens presided over a multi-faceted monthly gathering chock full of presentations, acknowledgements, and the exciting Pine-Wood Derby. Den 1, led by den mother Darlene Williams, was in charge of the opening ceremony. Pack chairman Don Ruth made the following announcements: February 4, Boy Scout Sunday will be observed by the attendance of the pack at the 10:30 AM service at St. John's Lutheran Church, Maytown; February 7, Pack Committee meeting at 7:00 PM at the East Donegal Township Municipal Building at which time plans will be formalized for the February 23 Blue and Gold Banquet. Acknowledgement given and scout canteens were awarded to Harold Mohr, Den 1, Mike Palmer, Den 2, and Jesse Shank, Webelos, for super salesmanship for the French

Chocolate Mint project by chairman, Bernie Donley.

Advancement of rank and recognition for the scouts' badge work was awarded to the following: den 1, receiving wolf badges, Erik Williams, Steven McNaughton, and Bobby Arnette, Den 2, receiving wolf badges, Hobb Wilson, Donny Ruth, Robert Bote, Webelos leader, Bernie Donley, presented his scouts with the Webelos badge and badge colors upon which were pinned the earned activity badges. These Webelos and the completed activities are as follows: J. Edward Gilmartin, Aquanaut, Artist, Athlete, craftsman, Naturalist; Jesse Shank, Artist, Athlete, Craftsman, Geologist; Lee Wise, Artist, Craftsman, Traveler; Scott Williams, Aquanaut, Athlete, Craftsman, Naturalist; Stuart Newman, Aquanaut, Athlete, Craftsman, Traveler; Ronald Smith, Artist, Aquanaut, Craftsman. Also completing Webelos Craftsman badges were Keith Decker and Steven Herr. Mr. Donley then presented shoulder cords to Kip Embly — Webelos Den Chief, Jesse Shank — Denner, and J. Edward Gilmartin — Assistant Denner.

Den 2, led by den mother, Jeannette Ruth, signaled the beginning of the "Derby" races by a special scout rendition of the "Pinewood Derby Races." Anxiety reigned supreme from the official weigh-in to the final "race-off." Those securing official derby status are: Semi-final winners Andrew Trostle, Den 1, Steven Thomas, Den 2, and Keith Decker, Webelos. The grand champion of the pack was Steven Thomas. The most original design was awarded to J. Edward Gilmartin. The judges for the event were Mr. William Vogel and Mr. Dale Allen Boyer.

The closing ceremony was conducted by Den 2.
