Mrs. Jack C. Frank

Bonnie Everett marries Jack Frank

The marriage of Bonnie Allyson Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin B. Everett, Lititz, to Jack C. Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Frank, Maytown, took place on Saturday evening (February 17th) at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Lancaster with the Rev. David P. Thomas officiating.

Jamie S. Everett, sister of the bride, Bloomington, In., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Connie Longenecker, Elizabethtown; Janice Keil, Mechanicsburg; Cindy Nelson, Stroudsburg; and Bobbi Evans, Mountville.

Robert A. Frank, brother of the groom, Maytown, served as best man. Ushers were William Earhart, Elizabethtown; Richard Rhine, Mount Joy; Robert Evans, Mountville; and William Reuter, Mount Joy.

The bride wore a floor length gown of ivory satin with re-embroidered Aloncon. The dress had an empire waist with cardinal sleeves and a wateau train with motifs of matching lace.

The bride attended Linden Hall School for Girls and is a cum laude graduate of Elizabethtown College in business education. She is an instructor of secretarial sciences at Central Pennsylvania Business School near Harrisburg.

The groom is a graduate of Donegal High School and York College. He is a social studies teacher and head basketball coach at Elizabethtown Area High School.

The couple will live in Maytown.

MYO Baseball starts soon

The Maytown Youth Organization holds monthly meetings on the 4th Monday of the month at 7:30 in the East Donegal Township building. They urge all parents of children eligible to play baseball to attend and help plan the activities for this season.

Sign-up for the baseball season is scheduled for March 1st, 7:00 to 9:00 PM, and March 3rd, 10:00 to 12:00 PM at the Township Building.

Each child will need his parent's signature, birth certificate, and registration fee.

Election of officers will be held on the 4th Monday of March. The MYO hopes to have at least 15 people at the meeting.

Harry Chapin

The Harry Chapin Band will appear at Elizabethtown College on Monday, February 26th. Tickets are available at Budget Disc-O-Tape in Lancaster and at

For Every Ear on the square in E-town.

Tickets cost $7.50 regular and $6.50 for students. Show time is 7:30.

Marietta Auxiliary plans Marietta Day

Projects for the year were listed at the February meeting of the Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital. The meeting was held at the home of Miss Elsie McCloskey. Co-hostess was Mrs. Elise Kulman.

Mrs. Joe Carroll conducted the business session during which benefit events including spring and fall card parties, a Marietta Day event, and printing a cookbook of local recipes were discussed. If you have a recipe to contribute to the cookbook, contact Sylvia Henry or Ruth Wisman by this April.

The cookbook's art work will be done by Patricia Gilmartin. Ellen Leonard will be the typist. Loretta Arnold will proofread. The book is planned to go on sale in September.

A home-made quilt will be chanced off during this spring. Ruth Miller, Sylvia Henry, and Betty Katjen will choose the pattern.

Mrs. George Houseal and Mrs. William Heisey are the co-hostesses for the March 12 meeting. It will be held at 1:30 at the Houseal's home on West Market Street, Marietta.

Jack Johnson, a local realtor, is attending a seminar in New York City this week on "Real Estate Investment Analysis" sponsored by the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania.

"Real Estate Investment Analysis" is a comprehensive seminar which applies modern management methods to real estate investment: investment objectives, rates of return, risk financial leverage and economic policies.

Next week Mr. Johnson will attend a "Commercial and Investment Course" sponsored by the National Association of Realtors in Philadelphia, and will study the mathematics of investment, loans, and individual taxes, including the preparation of investment analysis forms used in client analysis and projection.
