Day of Prayer

Miss Miriam Nell, a Lancaster social worker, will be the speaker for the Marietta Community World Day of Prayer service to be held on Friday, March 2nd, at 7:30 PM in Zion Lutheran Church. The church is off Rte. 441 on Colebrook Road.

Six local congregations will participate. Representing the churches will be Mrs. C.C. Rex (United Church of Christ), Mrs. Anna Ressler (English United Presbyterian), Mrs. Earl Gorman (St. John's Episcopal), Miss Judy Waters (Bethel A.M.E.), Miss Naomi Myers (First United Methodist), and Mrs. J.R. Baker from Zion Church.

Miss Lauralee Baker and Mrs. Miriam Rudy will sing a duet. Miss Gail Houck will lead a children's service simultaneously.

World Day of Prayer is sponsored in this country by Church Women United.

The theme this year is spiritual growth. The service is prepared by students in the Pan-African Leadership Course for Women at Mindolo Ecumenical Foundation, Kitwe, Zambia.

The African women sent this message: "Our warm greetings to all the Christians around the world who are coming together from different places for the World Day of Prayer in 1979. We hope that the voices of women at the Pan-African Leadership Course in Mindolo can be heard in solidarity with the voices of women throughout the world as we pray together."

World Day of Prayer dates back to 1887. It has spread to 140 countries and 33 islands.

Each year women in a different nation write the prayer service, based on themes chosen the international committee.

Cooperative Lenten Services

The first of 6 cooperative Lenten Services will be held at Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, on Sunday, March 4, at 7:30 PM. The Rev. Rodney Shearer, chaplain of Lebanon Valley College, Annville, will be the guest speaker.

The series of services are sponsored by the Florin Church of the Brethren and Glossbrenner United Methodist Church.

The combined choirs of the two churches under the direction of Mrs. Sylvia Weaver and Mrs. Carol Borry will sing two anthems—"Into the Woods My Master Went," by Williams, and "Jesus Christ, the Crucified," by Gustafson.

Nursery care will be provided.

YWCA is conducting fund drive

For the next two months, the Lancaster YWCA will be conducting a fund-raising campaign to collect $400,000 for some much-needed building renovations.

Preschoolers and their parents come to the YWCA from all areas of Lancaster County for preschool programs in swim, gym, and dance. Teenagers enjoy the weekend Drop-In Center where they can swim, dance, play volleyball and basketball, and do other things.

Physical education classes serve school age children and adults. Summer day camp and after-school programs provide supervised activity for children while their parents are at work.

For the renovation of the building, the YWCA has embarked on the "Renaissance 1980 Fund" campaign, with a goal of $400,000.

Currently, the Lancaster YWCA has 3,700 adult members, both women and men, who maintain the Y and its activities by their volunteer support and membership dues.
