Spring Bazaar

Joyce-ettes will sell hand-made items

The Mt. Joy Joyce-ettes will be having a Spring Bazaar in the Fellowship Hall at the St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Main Street, Mt. Joy, on Saturday, March 24 from 9 am to 3 pm.

Many hand-made items, which the Joyce-ettes have been busy making, will be for sale to complete your shopping list. For the "kiddies" there will be a "Children's Corner," and an Easter Egg Grab Bag. Chances are now on sale for a set of Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls (36 inches high). Tickets are available from any Joyce-ette members.

Lunch will be available. The menu will be a barbeque sandwich, chips, pickles and drink. For your sweet tooth there will be a bake stand with home-made goodies.

Chairman for the bazaar is Mrs. Cindy Stoner. Chairman for the food & bake sale is Mrs. Sue Thomas.

Don't miss this chance to shop for Easter and Spring. Bring your Friends.

1st aid course in Marietta

A standard multi-media first aid course will be offered to the public on April 18th and 19th. Applications are being accepted now.

The course includes 20 film segments, 17 practice sessions, and 13 workbook lessons. If you take the course, you will learn how to deal with wounds, shock, artificial respiration, poisoning, burns, heat stroke, hypothermia, fainting, objects in the eye, throat and larynx, and how to rescue and transfer victims of these things.

The cost is only $4.55 per person. A large first aid textbook is available for an additional $2.07.

Those attending both sessions and passing the test will receive a Red Cross certificate.

Anyone who has completed 7th grade or is over 13 years old can take the course.

The instructor will be Stephen M Bailey, of 416 W. Market Street, Marietta, a certified instructor and training officer of the Marietta Area Ambulance Association.

Since a certain number of people must be taught at once, the course will be held only if enough people sign up.

To apply, call Steve Bailey at 426-3810 before March 21st.

Band Parents to hold scrap drive

A scrap paper drive will be held by the Donegal Band Parents Club on Saturday, March 17th, between 8 and 10 AM.

Anyone with extra paper may take it to the Maytown, Riverview, or Donegal High, or the elementary schools at that time.

ABWA Fashion Show

The Mount Joy Charter Chapter of the ABWA (American Business Women's Association) will host a fashion show at its next regularly scheduled meeting to be held on Tuesday, March 27, 1979. The fashion show will feature Queensway Fashions and will be held at the Sheraton-Conestoga, Oregon Pike, Lancaster, at 6:30 PM.

At its February meeting, Citizenship Month was celebrated with guest speaker Joyce Shenk from the Lancaster Charter Chapter. She recited two poems which were America for Men and Johnny Appleseed. Vocational speaker for the evening was Mary Ann Strickler who is employed by Dutchman Hereford Lauxmont Farms.

The upcoming Boss and Business Associate Night which is scheduled for the April meeting to held on Tuesday, April 23rd, was also discussed. This meeting will be held at Lacy's Lounge in Marietta.

The Education Committee recommended two candidates to be awarded a scholarship of $500 each, and this action was approved.

Josie Ellis who is employed by National Standard Company will be the vocational speaker for the March meeting. Anyone wishing more information regarding the ABWA should contact Pamela Plasterer at 665-2984.
