—Bernard A. Thome

Indians win district tourney

Mummau is champ; Funk is coach of year

Donegal won the team trophy. Arlen Mummau won the district championship. And Gene Funk was named coach of the year.

Donegal grabbed most of the glory at the AA district wrestling tournament. It was the first time that a Lancaster-Lebanon team had won a team title at the district level, although Warwick would have won the AAA title in 1976, if team trophies had been handed out back then.

Indians Brent Hershey and Cliff Sweigart picked up second place trophies at the meet.

After the big win, we asked some Indian wrestlers to explain their team's success.

Cliff Sweigart said, "Mr. Funk is more than a coach."

Arlen Mummau said, "He does everything with us."

"He's a friend," said Brent Hershey. "We go over to his house. He lives for wrestling, four months a year."

Arlen Mummau said, "He makes a great sacrifice for the team. He's got a way with kids. We work harder than most of the other teams. We're in better shape."

Brent Hershey said, "Mr. Funk's main philosophy is that it's all in your head. If you want to do it, you can do it. Most of the team has adopted that philosophy."

was reported in last week's Susquehanna Times.

For information on the banquet, call Ronald Underkoffler at 653-5726 or Mrs. John Hershey at 653-5807.

The banquet will start at 6:00 PM at Hostetter's Dining Hall. The ticket price is $5.50 per person.

The banquet is being held to honor all the wrestlers.

Wrestling Banquet on the 19th

The DHS wrestling banquet will be held on March 19th, not on March 15th as

Coach of the Year Gene Funk
