

Obituary

Warren W. Peters, 56, of Locust Street, Bainbridge, died unexpectedly Friday evening at his home. He had been under the care of a physician.

Peters was employed at the R&S Manufacturing Co. of Columbia. He was baptized in the Christian faith.

During World War II, Peters served in the U.S. Air Corps, taking part in operations in three European theaters. He held membership in AmVets Post 153 of Columbia, the American Legion Post of Bainbridge, Red Rose Post 2435 Veterans of Foreign Wars of Columbia, and the Susquehanna Fire Company.

Born in Manor Township, he was the son of the late Jacob and Edith Levan Peters and the husband of Mary King Peters.

Surviving, in addition to his wife, are two daughters, Mary Jane, wife of John Swarr, Columbia, and Elizabeth Clone, Coudersport; a son, Kervin L. Tome of Columbia; nine grandchildren and one great-grandson.

One brother, Frank Peters of Lancaster, and two sisters, Sally, wife of Lester Fry, Washington Boro, and Pauline, wife of Wayne Schock, Conestoga R2, also survive.

Historical Society studies capitol

The March meeting of the Mount Joy Area Historical Society will be held at the Borough Hall, Mount Joy, on Monday, March 19th at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Richard Peifer will give an illustrated talk on the "History of the U. S. Capitol Building." He has done much study on our Nation's Capital as well as the entire city of Washington, D.C.

The Society is sponsoring a bus trip to Washington on Saturday, April 7th. The cherry blossoms will be in bloom and Mr. Peifer will serve as leader of the trip and describe the landmarks of the city. Among the stops will be the new Visitors' Center, The Ford Theater, the new East Gallery of the Smithsonian and some other "surprises".

A Chicken Barbecue will be held at the Society Building on Saturday, April 14th. Tickets will be distributed at the meeting Monday night.

W. Bernell Heisey will preside at the meeting and refreshments will be served. Prospective members are invited to attend.

—Helen Barto, publicity chairman

Hospital Auxiliary plans party

A card party, the chancing off of a hand made quilt and the manning of a food stand during "Marietta Day" were projects discussed during the March meeting of the Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital at the home of Mrs. George Houseal. Mrs. William Heisey and Miss Mary Carroll were co-hostesses.

A public pinochle party sponsored by the above organization will be held on April 17, at 8 P.m. in the Marietta Community House. Mrs. Houseal and Mrs. Heisey are arranging the benefit.

Mrs. Ralph Miller, Mrs. Robert Henry and Mrs. Betty Katjen will work as a committee to select a hand made quilt for the selling of chances. The winner will be announced June 11.

Miss Ruth Wisman, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Joe Gilmartin and Mrs. Joe Carroll will compile a cook book of recipes of local residents. People with favorite recipes may contribute by turning the recipes over to any member of the above committee by April 1.

The April luncheon meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Judy Weidman, Rheems, on the 9th at 1:30 P.M. Reservations may be made with Mrs. William Heisey.

The chaplain, Mrs. William Heisey, opened the meeting with some selected readings. Mrs. Joe Carroll conducted the business session.

When a desk style telephone won't cut it . . . CUT OUT THIS PERFECT SOLUTION!

The Mini-Wall phone from United Telephone gives you the same quality in everyway as a familiar standard desk set. But the Mini-Wall adds the space saving convenience of a wall mounted phone. The Mini-Wall phone is exceptionally attractive and functional . . . just in a miniature design.

You'll find this wonderful space saver can even add a decorator's touch. The Mini-Wall phone comes in your choice of these colors:

- Aqua Blue • Burnt Orange • Harvest Gold
- Beige • Cherry Red • Moss Green
- Black • Cocoa Brown • White

Want this perfect solution in your home?

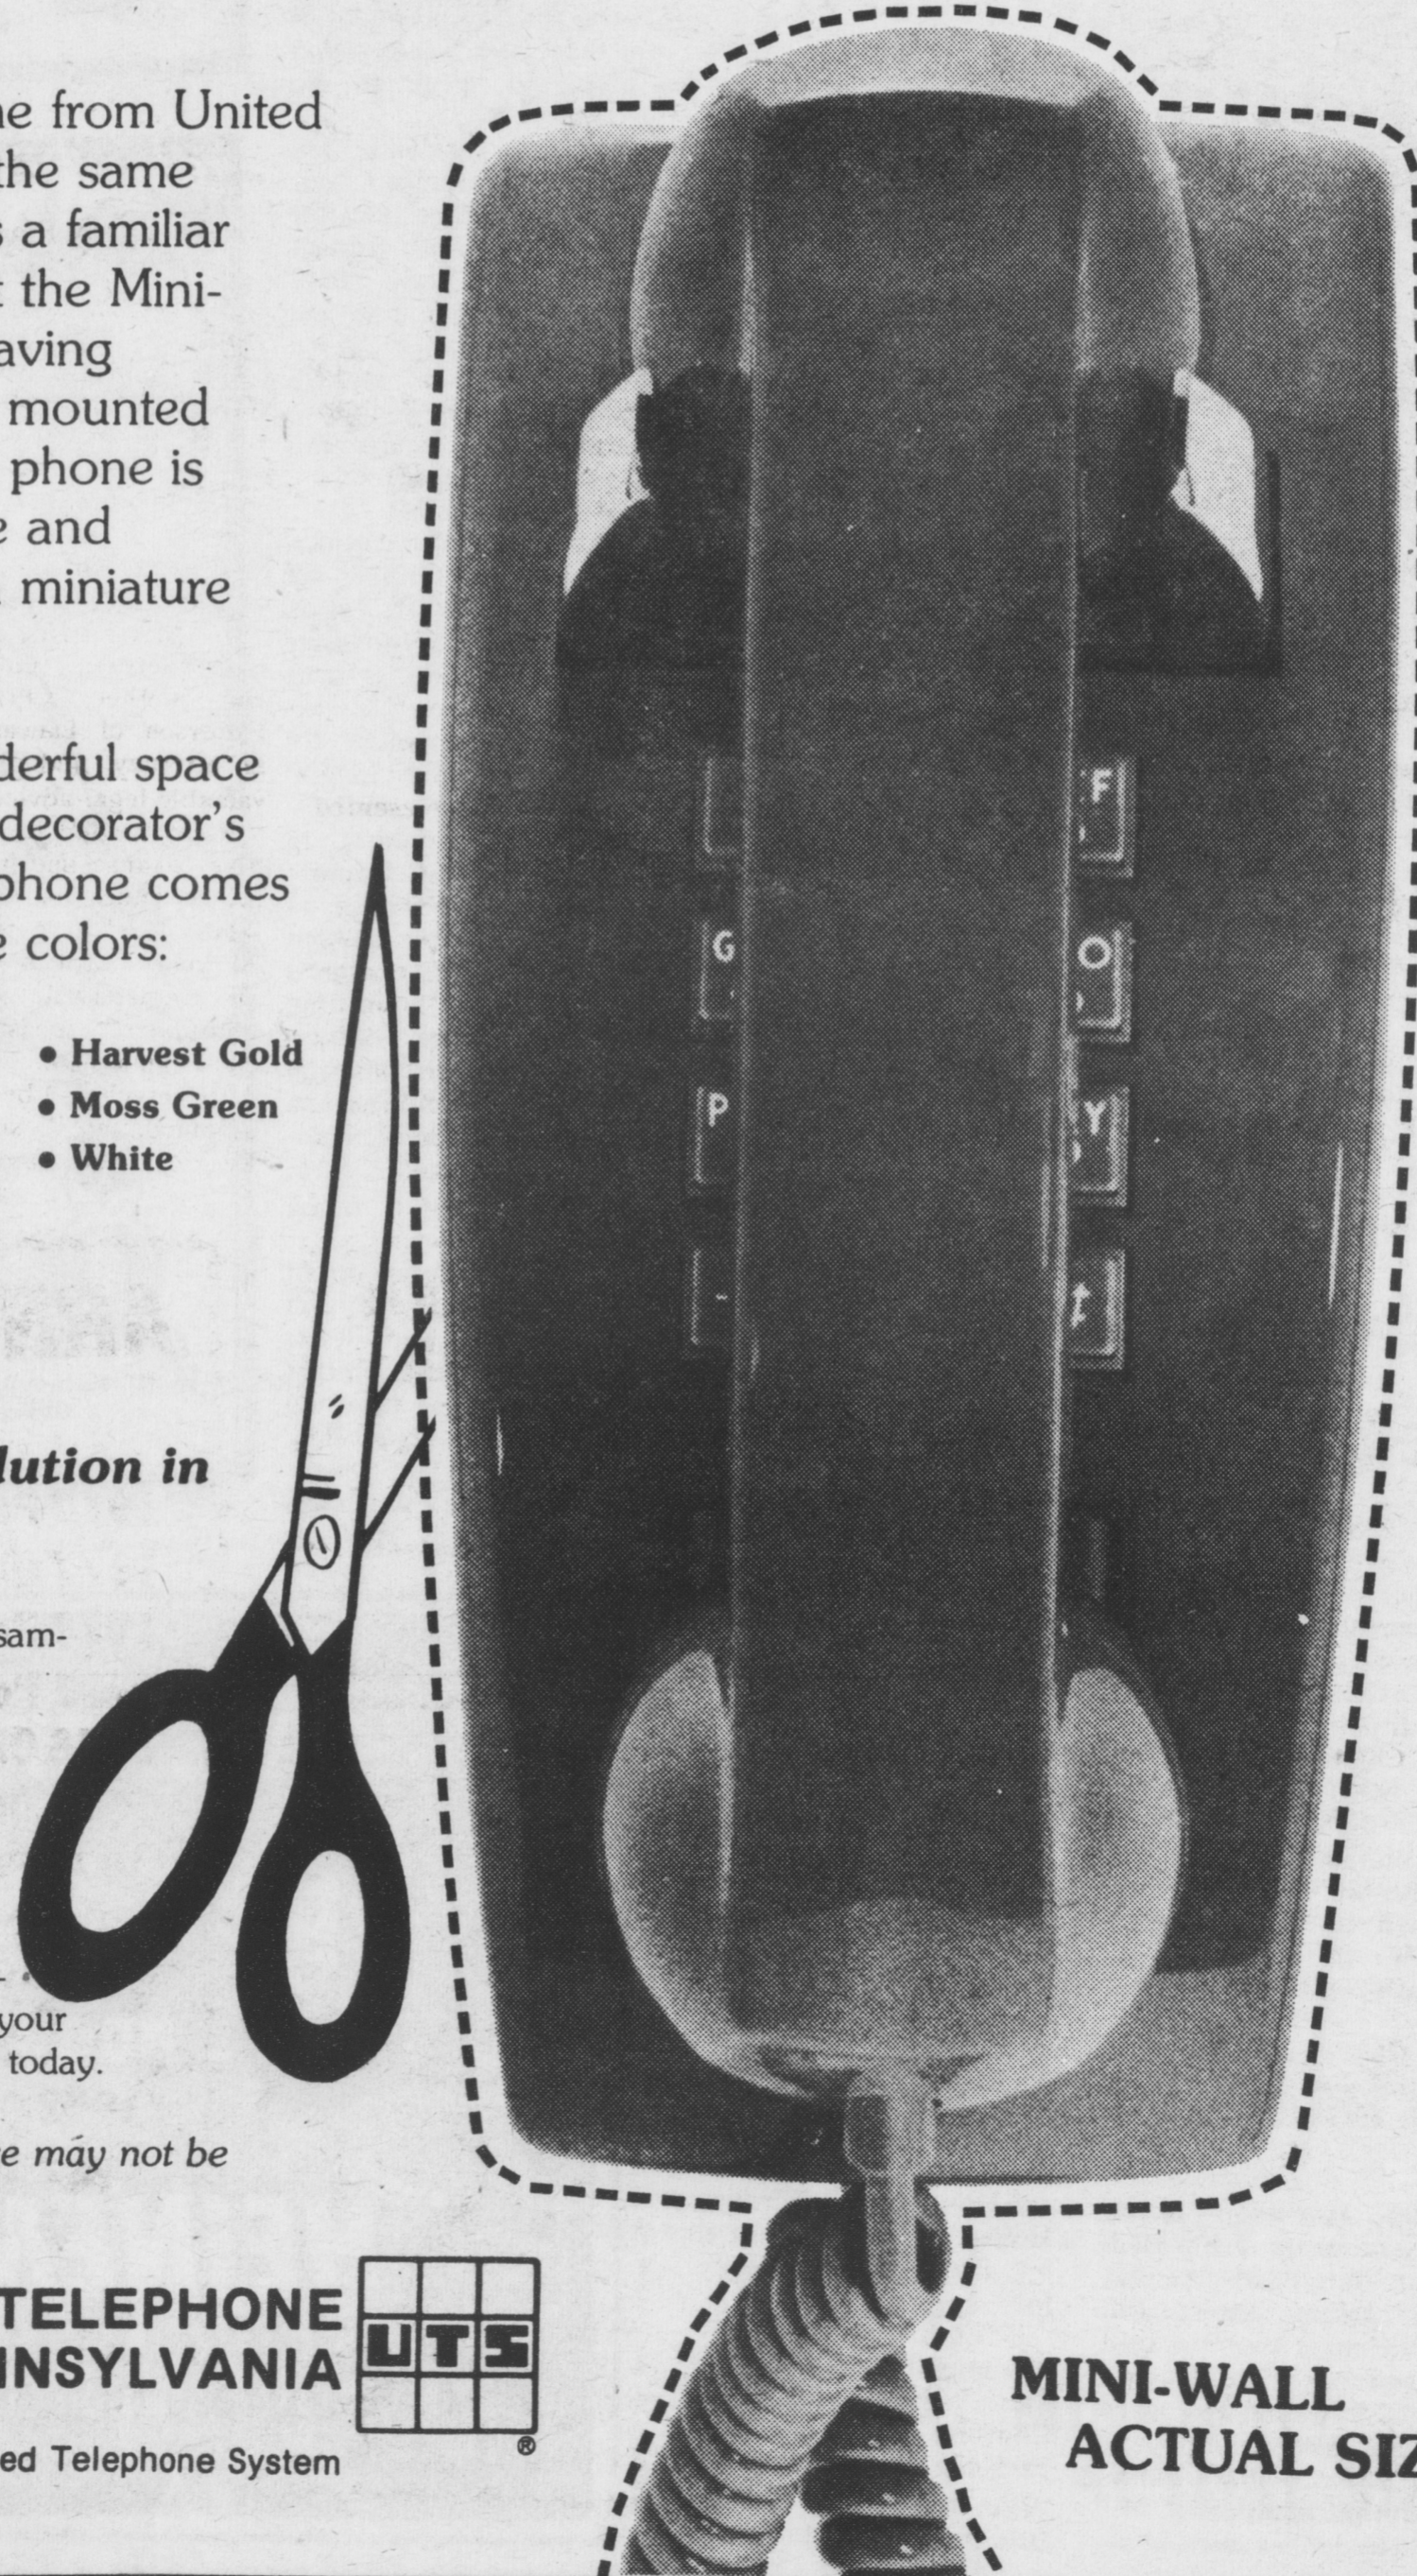

1. Simply cut out this actual size sample of a Mini-Wall phone.
2. Place it on your walls until you find that perfect spot. (Due to varying home construction methods, minor location changes might be necessary when actually installing the set).
3. Call your local United Telephone Business Office and order your Mini-Wall spacesaving telephone today.

U-TOUCH® push button service may not be available in all areas.

THE UNITED TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

United Telephone System

MINI-WALL
ACTUAL SIZE