Scott Stauffer

Scott Stauffer becomes Eagle Scout

Scott T. Stauffer, 17, the son of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Stauffer of 101 No. Barbara Street, Mount Joy, will receive the rank of Eagle Scout this evening.

Eagle Scout is scouting's highest rank. Scott will be awarded it at a Court of Honor ceremony during a scout banquet held at Hostetter's Banquet Hall. The presentation will be made by Mr. John D. Day, III, Guidance Counselor at Donegal High School and himself an Eagle Scout.

Scott's sister, Selisa, a senior at Elizabethtown College, will be present for the occasion as well as his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Grabill of Bareville, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Stauffer of Landisville. The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. John D. Long of New Holland will also attend.

Scott is a member of the Boy Scouts of America, Troop #39, Mount Joy, of which he has served as assistant patrol leader, patrol leader, quartermaster, scribe, instructor, and junior assistant scoutmaster. In April he will assume the responsibility of being assistant scoutmaster.

He is also the troop's bugler. He has participated in the last three Mount Joy Community Memorial Services as bugler.

Scott has attended the J. Edward Mack Scout Reservation for three summers.

He began his scouting activities in 1969 as a cub in Pack 136 of Mount Joy.

For his Eagle Service project, Scott planned and organized a free vision screening for people in the Mount Joy area.

Scott is a senior at Donegal High School, where he is enrolled in the academic course. He plays trumpet in the Marching and Concert Bands. He is a member of the Lancaster Church of the Brethren where he is active in the Youth Fellowship.

Scott has been accepted at Elizabethtown College. He plans to pursue a professional career in optometry.
