Pack 53 Arrow of Light ceremony

by Patricia Gilmartin

An impressive Arrow of Light ceremony highlighted the March 26 pack meeting of Pack #53, Maytown. Held at St. John's Lutheran Church, the evening's festivities featured the recipients of the coveted Arrow of Light, cub scouting's highest and most honorable achievement. Beside a placard representing the progression of Webelo, Arrow of Light, and Boy Scout insignias, Cubmaster Ron Mullens made the presentation to a record six Webelo scouts: J. Edward Gilmartin, Jesse Shank, Stuart Newman, Lee Wise, Ronald Smith and Scott Williams.

Bernie Donley, Webelos leader, expressed pride in his boys' competence and achievements as he presented the following badges:

Jesse Shank— Showman, Naturalist, Outdoorsman, Forester;

J. Edward Gilmartin— Showman, Outdoorsman, Forester, Scientist, Scholar, Sportsman;

Stuart Newman— Showman, Engineer, Citizen, Sportsman, Scientist;

Stephen Herr— Showman, Traveler, Outdoorsman, Aquanaut;

Scott Williams— Citizen, Forester, Scholar, Showman
Ronnie Smith— Showman
Duane Ney— Showman, Citizen, Traveler;

Harold Mohr— Showman
The ultimate rung on the ladder toward higher scouting growth was surpassed as two young men satisfactorily completed within a six month period of time the entire fifteen Webelo badges. They are Jesse Shank and J. Edward Gilmartin. J. Edward will be leaving the Webelos Den as he continues scouting with Boy Scout Troop #53, Maytown.

Additional award recognitions are as follows: from Darlene Williams' Den 1—receiving Gold Arrows, Lloyd McElhenny and Andrew Trostle; receiving Silver Arrows, Bobby Arnette, Andrew Trostle and Erik Williams; and receiving denner and assistant denner cords, Steve McNaughton and Erik Williams.

From Jeanette Ruth's Den 2—receiving Silver Arrows, Hobb Wilson and Denny Ruth; receiving denner and assistant denner cords, Hobb Wilson and Donny Ruth.

Darlene Williams, Den 1, introduced two new cubs who are now working on their wolf badges: Carl Groff and Chris O'Donnell. Also introduced was her assistant den mother, Odellia McDonald.

The entertainment for the evening consisted of Den 2 and their Mystifying Magic Show, Den 1 and their Magical Illusions and the Webelos with their appearance of Henry the Intelligent Elephant, Maharishi of Mantusi and the Lords of Firefly, Waterfly and Let-er-fly!

Pack Chairman Don Ruth announced the forthcoming Recognition Banquet and Joanne Shank, District Commissioner, spoke of the June Scout Roundup at which each pack will be displaying their own, originally designed tepee and logo. Mrs. Shank then presented Roundup patches to Steve McNaughton and Erik Williams for recruiting new members.

Fellowship and refreshments followed the closing ceremony.
