Mrs. Thomas Carraher

Jean Edwards weds Thomas Carraher

Jean Thome Edwards and Thomas Michael Carraher were united in marriage on Saturday, March 24, at 6 p.m. in the United Methodist Church, Milton Grove, by the Rev. Frederick Holler.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thome, R.D. 2, Mount Joy. Her attendant was Miss Sandi Hohenwalter, maid of honor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white cotton three-tiered skirt edged with eyelet lace, with satin ribbon high lighting the waist line and a scoop neckline. She carried a bouquet of daisies and silk flowers.

Allen Artz served as organist, and the soloist was Anita Patton. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

After a wedding trip the couple will reside at Mount Joy R. 2.

The bride was graduated from Donegal High School and Millersville State College. She is employed by I.U. 13.

The groom is a graduate of McDevitt High and is a student at Elizabethtown College. He is self-employed at Carr's Tuning and Repair Service.

BPW hears talk on women

Mrs. Ralph Layman, an elementary teacher in the Quarryville School District, was guest speaker for the 24th birthday celebration of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Womens Club. "The Ages of Women" was the subject of Mrs. Layman's talk. She spoke of four stages in female development: children, teenagers, mothers, grandmothers.

Adrian Hohenwalter winner of the Liberace Award, played the piano.

Mrs. Abe Weidman, chairperson of the hospitality committee arranged the program.

Mrs. Eugene Eicherly, chairperson of the personal development committee introduced the girl of the month, Sandra Kreider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kreider, R. 1, Mount Joy. Mrs. Kreider was also a guest of the club. Additional guests were members of the E-town club, which is the local organization's "mother" club. Mrs. Earl Koser, president, announced the April Board meeting will be held at her home on the ninth; the club will sponsor Mel Ehrin, a national figure in "Concert for Comedy," to be held April 21 at 8 p.m. in Donegal High School auditorium; and the Spring District meeting April 21 at 8 p.m. in Donegal High School auditorium; and the Spring District meeting April 7 in the Hershey Convention Center.

The April 23 meeting will be arranged by Mrs. Ethel Huss, chairperson of the World Affairs Committee; Joe Shaffer, Mount Joy, will give talk on the Orient, illustrated with slides.

Scouts support tax deduction

The Penn Laurel Girl Scout Council has joined other public service agencies in support of two bills before Congress that would extend the charitable deduction on Federal income tax returns, as a separate line item, to all taxpayers: the Moynihan-Packwood bill (S. 219) and bill (S. 219) and Fisher-Conable bill (H.R. 1785).

Penn Laurel's Board of Directors voted to write letters in support of both bills. The Board is also urging its individual members to lobby for passage of these bills.
