Duane Musser

Last week Donegal High student Duane Musser was presented with the Hugh O'Brien Certificate of Recognition for being the Outstanding Sophomore in the school.

Duane is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Musser of 350 South Delta Street, Mount Joy.

The award was presented by John D. Day, DHS guidance counselor, who told the Times, "He is just as nice as his parents were when they were in school." Mr. Day knew Duane's parents as students. Mrs.

Musser is the former Carole West.

Duane is active in wrestling, soccer, and student government at DHS. He is president of the sophomore class.

Outside school, Duane enjoys fishing, summer wrestling, and working with the St. Mark's United Methodist Church youth group, of which he is the treasurer.

He plans to attend college and study education or business.

A good student, he is on the honor roll most of the time.
